LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

"Footlight Ranger", a western drama featuring Chas. (Buck) Jones and "Slim Shoulders", a thrilling story of social high lights and financial coups were the feature films on Wednesday and Saturday evenings respectively. Irene Castle starred in the latter picture, admirably supported by Rod LaRoque and Warren Cook. The film was replete with such thrills as a fast race between a motor boat and an automobile, a stirring rescue by the heroine of a drowning man, and some clever character work by her. Sunshine Comedies and Pathe News rounded out these programmes. Saturday evening, July 21, brings "The Custard Cup" featuring Mary Carr, last seen here in "Silver Wings," and on Tuesday evening, William Russell in "Great Night". Films of a lighter texture will be used to supplement and brighten up the bill.

Subjects for the morning and evening services in the United Baptist church are as follows: 11 a.m., "Is church going a habit?" Evening, 7.30 "The Brazen Serpent." Come and hear.
