Miss Bostwick, of Ithaca, N. Y., and Miss Bowie, of Brockville, are the guests of Mrs. Hoodless, Eastcourt, and are to be two of the bridesmaids at the Hoodless-Bostwick wedding next week. The other bridesmaids are Miss Evelyn Cox and Miss Muriel Dick, of Toronto, and the maid of honor is Miss Muriel Hoodless.

Mrs. Hawkins entertained at luncheon on Friday in honor of Miss Hoodless. Miss Hattie Greening is giving a box party at Bennett's, with tea afterwards at Lenthall, on Saturday, and Miss Wilgess is entertaining the wedding party at tea on Monday.

Miss Tinsley, Hilton street, returned home from Auksooka this week.

David and Mrs. Cummings have removed to their new home on Sprucefield avenue.

Norman S. Cumming left this week to continue his studies at Toronto University.

Mrs. Hatz, of Parry Sound, who has been spending a few days with friends in this city, went home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Halls, of Toronto, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. Taylor, of Gibson avenue.

Miss Florence Allen, of Burlington, is spending Sunday at the Methodist parsonage, Emerald street.

J. H. Johnston, for many years on the Herald staff, and until last spring advertising manager, is now in charge of the financial and real estate advertising department of the Portland, Oregon, Journal. Mr. Johnston's mother and sisters, 140 Beld street, will leave next week for the coast, where they will reside. George J. Johnston, Victoria, B. C., is in the city making arrangements for their removal, and to accompany his mother and sisters to the west.

T. H. Keller and Mrs. Crooks have returned from a very pleasant visit with friends in South Bend, Chicago and Milwaukee.

Mrs. J. A. Yorick, Mount Hamilton, will receive for the first time since her marriage on Tuesday afternoon, and evening, Oct. 8, and afterwards on the first and third Thursdays.

Miss S. S. Mills, Hughson street north, has returned, after spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Buchanan, Edmonton, Alta.

Mrs. C. P. Rason, 477 Main street east, will receive after Oct. 1 on the second and third Thursday of each month.

Philadelphia papers report a marriage which will interest Hamilton people, the bride having visited and being well known here. The Record says: Mrs. Ida Roman Dillon, of New Orleans, La., daughter of the late Judge Arthur Roman, of Louisiana, and Mrs. Virginia Roman, was married at noon, yesterday, to Mr. Julius Carl Koenig, member of the Board of Trade and a prominent merchant of New Orleans, at St. Stephen's P. E. Church, Tenth street, above Chestnut. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. C. E. Grammer, in the presence of a few friends, including Mrs. Joseph Wildesen, of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gallagher, Mr. M. H. Murphy, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gauger, of this city. After the ceremony, the bridal party participated in a wedding breakfast. Mr. and Mrs. Koenig left for New York, prior to their return to New Orleans. Mr. Koenig had been spending the summer in the Pocono Mountains, and his bride with Mrs. Wildesen were in New England. They came on here to meet Mr. Koenig for the wedding. The bride is a descendant of former Governor Roman, of Louisiana, and comes from an old and historic family of that State. Mr. Koenig is also a member of a prominent family of Louisiana, and belongs to all of the leading clubs, among them the Carnival Association, and also many public bodies, including the Levee Board. He is an uncle of Miss Alice Aldige, who was the Proteus Queen in the last Mardi Gras, which is one of the most coveted honors of that famous pageant.

Toronto Saturday Night: In mentioning the names of some of the debutantes of this season, I inadvertently wrote that Miss Hilda Burton is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Burton. Miss Hilda is Mrs. Warren Burton's second daughter, and will be as popular as was her elder sister, now Mrs. Featherstone Aylesworth, at her debut.

The marriage of Mr. Ernest J. Proctor and Miss Charlotte Emily (Dot) Nicholls, daughter of Mr. Frederic Nicholls, of the Homewood, Toronto, will take place in St. Paul's Church, Bloor street, there, on Oct. 17, and the ceremony will be followed by a reception at the family residence, Wellesley Crescent.

Toronto Saturday Night: At the Princess on Tuesday night the world and his wife and family were delighted over Peter Pan, the whimsical and exquisite vehicle by means of which that dainty bit of artistic perfection, Maude Adams, exploits her charms of mind and body. So many wondering children of the best class never sat open-mouthed as this week before the Princess stage. Children and very wise and tender-hearted grown folk grasp the full charm of Barrie's lively imaginings. There were several box parties. Mr. and Mrs. William Laidlaw and Miss Laidlaw and a girl friend from Hamilton occupied one box.

At the residence of the bride's mother, McDonald avenue, Parkdale, Toronto, a very pretty wedding was solemnized on September 28th, when Miss Jean Stratton, third daughter of Mrs. G. P. Harrison, and William Love were married. The ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock by Rev. James Murray, only the immediate families of the bride and groom being present. The bride's cousin, Vera Stratton, of Hamilton, was bridesmaid, and her little niece, Lois Stone, ring-bearer. During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Love left on a short trip to the east.

An interesting engagement of a very popular Ottawa girl has just been announced, and is that of Miss Ruth Sherwood, the eldest daughter of Col. A. P. and Mrs. Sherwood, to Capt. W. E. Stevenson, of Throokhouse House, Northumberland, England. Captain Stevenson and Miss Sherwood met in England, a short time ago and the former was in the capital recently, having come in connection with the Palma Trophy competition.

The engagement has just been announced of Miss Gertrude Riley, daughter of Mr. Joseph Riley, of New York, to Mr. R. Murray O'Hara, third son of the late Robert O'Hara, of Chatham, Ont., and Mrs. O'Hara. Mr. Murray O'Hara, who has for the past three or four years been stationed in the New York branch of the Bank of Commerce, has recently been appointed accountant of the branch of that bank at Brantford, Ont., having spent some years in Ottawa, and his many friends here are delighted to hear of his good luck.

The engagement is announced of Miss Margaret Maude Paynter, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paynter, Owen Sound, to Dr. J. Herbert Greenfield, of Winnipeg, Man., the marriage to take place quietly at Owen Sound, Oct. 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sutherland, of Newmarket, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Ruby, and Mr. E. Sterling Cady, of Witley, Sask. The marriage will take place quietly the end of October.

The rumor of the engagement of Prince Arthur of Connaught to Lady Marjorie Manners has been revived, and it has been stated, but without official confirmation, that the marriage is soon to take place.

The marriage of the Hon. Henrietta O'Neill, eldest daughter of Lord and Lady O'Neill, of Shane's Castle, Antrim, Ireland, and niece of the Earl of Dunsand, very recently to Mr. Charles Edward Leith-Hay, of Rannoch and Leith Hall, Aberdeen, took place in St. Paul's Church, Knightsbridge, London. Miss O'Neill accompanied her aunt, Lady Elizabeth Cochrane, to Canada about a year ago, and spent some time in the Capital.

The marriage of Mr. Charles Ross, assistant manager of the Dominion bank at Toronto, and Mrs. Charles Holmes, formerly of Toronto and daughter of the late Charles Cameron, of Collingwood, was quietly celebrated in St. George's Church, Montreal, on Wednesday. The Rev. Paterson Smyth, curate, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Holmes has been traveling about for the past two years with her two daughters and her sister, Miss Cameron.

Mr. P. A. Macdonald, of Walkerton, Ont., has been appointed Deputy Judge of the County Court of Bruce during the absence on leave of Judge Klein.

Marconi is sending wireless messages across the Atlantic.

Pastor Philpott will preach in the Gospel Tabernacle to-morrow in the morning on "How to Have a Revival," and in the evening on "Jesus at Home."

There will be a grand membership rally at 10 a. m. in First Methodist Church. At 11 a. m. Rev. R. J. Trevelyan will give a special message to the church; 7 p. m. "Fighting Lions."

An address on "The International Convention, Mass., last week, will be given by Rev. W. Delos Smith at Unity Church to-morrow evening.

The song service to-morrow evening at Zion Tabernacle at 6.40 will be led by Harry Reed's orchestra. The pastor will preach at 7 on the subject, "What Harm Is There in the Theatre?"

Victoria Avenue Baptist Church anniversary services will be held to-morrow. The pastor will preach at 11 a. m. on "Loyalty and Disloyalty," and at 7 p. m. on "Living Letters." Special music at both services.

Communion service in Central Church in the morning, conducted by Dr. Lyle. Mr. Sedgewick will conduct the evening service. The quartette and choir will sing at both services, and Mrs. Frank MacKean will sing a solo at the evening service.

Rev. Richard Whiting will occupy the pulpit of Centenary Church to-morrow. The choir will be assisted at both services by Mr. Chrystal Brown, tenor, of Erie, Pa., formerly tenor soloist of the church. Mrs. George Allan will resume her position as contralto soloist. Short organ recital after the evening service.

At James Street Baptist Church to-morrow Dr. Morton, Superintendent of Home Missions, will speak at 11 a. m.; hymn-anthem, "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me," quartette, "He'll Never Forget to Keep Me," 7 p. m.—Rev. J. C. Symamore will preach on "The Mission of the Church;" hymn-anthem, "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me;"

quartette, "A Message from Home," 8.15—Reception to new members and ordinance of the Lord's supper.

At Knox Church to-morrow evening Dr. Nelson will take the article on the Keystone crime in the current number of Everybody's Magazine, as an illustration of perverted talent. The sermon will be of especial interest to young men. Dr. Nelson is personally acquainted with the leading actor in this tragedy of political corruption, and will show that a certain kind of politics has its rise in personal character, and not, as is often said, in political conditions.

LADIES' AID.

Annual Meeting of Emerald Street Methodist Society.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid of Emerald Street Methodist Church, was held this week, when the following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. Wedge.
 Vice-President—Mrs. James Bautenheimer.
 Secretary—Mrs. Firkin.
 Assistant Secretary—Miss Williamson.
 Treasurer—Mrs. Burns.

At the close of the business an afternoon tea was served to the members. The society is in a prosperous condition. Plans were made for increased efforts for church work during the coming year.

FOX STOLE GOLF BALL.

Reynard Picked It Up and Carried It to the Woods.

New York, Oct. 4.—The Tribune has received the following despatch from Winsted, Conn.: A party of golfers, including W. H. Phelps, cashier of the Huriburt National Bank, and Timothy Allen, of New York City, who is visiting here, went to Norfolk yesterday to play on the links of the Norfolk Downs Club. Richard Hooker, of Norfolk, drove the ball, and a fox darted from the woods skirting the links and started after it. Hooker waved his hat to Reynard, whereupon the fox snapped up the ball and disappeared in the woods.

Hoax—It's queer how a foreigner can come to our shores and make a name for himself. Joak—That's right. I knew a Russian named Bottlowbisky, and he hadn't been here a month before his name was Smith.

MURDER CASE AT LONDON.

Trial of Italian for Death at Dance, Up Next Week.

London, Ont., Oct. 4.—There will be a murder case heard at the Fall Assizes here next week, that preferred against Thomas Noah, the young Oneida Indian, who was alleged to have shot Abacoma Fox, a fellow Indian, at a dance on the Muncie Reserve on the night of May 2nd. The actual commission of the crime is shrouded in mystery as far as any witness is concerned, although one witness at the inquest swore that in the half light he saw Noah's hand raised as if to strike Fox, and saw the victim fall. When they arrived at the scene, which was beside a buggy, Noah was gone and a knife was found sticking in Fox's head. Mr. Justice Trevelyan will be the presiding judge.

MURDERER ESCAPES, BUT DIES.

One of Slayers of Demented Squaw in Kewatin Flies to Bush.

Selkirk, Man., Oct. 4.—The nephew of the Chief of the Fiddler Indians, who, with his uncle, was held for the murder of a demented squaw at Red Deer Lake, Kewatin, escaped from jail at Norway House, although fired on by police, in the bush, where his body was found, strangled to death.

Run Over and Killed.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—Percy Robertson, three-year-old son of A. J. Robertson, leader of the Opposition in the Alberta Legislature, was fatally injured by being run over by a cook wagon which was being drawn through Nanton by a traction engine. The little boy died at 9 o'clock.

Canada's Struggling Baptists.

London, Oct. 4.—At the Baptist Union assembly in Liverpool, Rev. J. B. Warwick, introduced by the President, briefly expressed the greetings he brought from "2,000 struggling" Baptists out in Western Canada. He thanked the union for all it had done. The colonists had rejoiced in the past to feel the warmth of the union assembly. If the heart of the empire was weak its extremities would also be weak.

"Look at him, haggard, heartbroken, alone." "And his wife at the bridge table." "Yes, it's the old story. He married her to reform her."—Washington Herald.
