Stocks and Bonds

New York, June 23 .- Noon letter .-The early market developed firmness after some offerings, and influential buving appeared in Union Pacific and buying appeared in Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, Reading and Smelters. Announcement of the death of Mr. Leds Southern Pacific, Reading and Smelters. Announcement of the death of Mr. Leds was followed by a sharp recovery in R. I. collateral trust bonds. Interest on 5s is not due until September, and on the 4s till November, so that there is no need to borrow through regarding these prices. St. Louis and San Francisco has some substantial interest payments to make in July; but there is no assurance that they will not be met. Union Pacific bonds were firmer. In view of current discussion of the position of weak roads, it may be mentioned that S. R. earnings are expected to be sufficient to cover fixed charges for the present fiscal year, as from other necessary distribution from income, 10 per cent. cut in wages would admit of a $5,000,000 surplus over charges under present conditions. It is stated that the outcome of the Westinghouse Electric Company will not be friendly toward relations with General Electric, making injudicious competition. Allis Chadmers' business for May was 80 per cent, better than in April. There appears to be some quiet execution of Southern Pacific. Our impression is that Harriman interests are not at all bearish, and anticipating gradual improvement in business. It would not be surprising to hear of some substantial steel mirals of the British fleet, arrived here yesterday on him way around the world, accompanied by his wife and family. The Admiral, who is making a two years' tour, came here by way of the Straits of Magellan. After a stay of a few days he will proceed on his way to the Orient by way of British Columbia. Being 69 years old, the Admiral will go on the retired list next year.

Clews' Review. New York, June 20 .- Now that the Chicago convention is over, and that Mr. Taft has secured the nomination, the nohitical outlook has been much clarified. Unless unforeseen events interfere, Mr. Taft will be our next President. His high character, ability and long experience in public affairs afford promise of a satisfactory and successful administration. The Roosevelt policies will be continued, but in a more deliberate and less tinued, but in a more deliberate and less disturbing fashion. As these policies are already well understood and have been fully discounted, the stock market ought to be comparatively free of political influences for some time to come. The stock market has shown dullness usually experienced previous to important political contengencies. With the removal of politics from consideration, temporarily at least, the market is likely to be governed more by natural in. temporarily at least, the market is likely to be governed more by natural influences. The technical position of the market is a strong one; and the floating supplies of stocks are chiefly in strong hands, who have no difficulty whatever in carrying large holdings in the present easy condition of the money market. On the Stock Exchange we may look for a comparatively quiet summer. Our business situation is still unsatisfactory; the volume continuing between 20 to 30 per cent. below hast year, as indicated by current railroad earnings and bank clearings. The losses in railroad traffic are now making themselves apparent in further reductions of dividapparent in further reductions of dividends. Louisville & Nashville dividend ends. Louisville & Nashville dividend was cut and the poor statements of Baltimore & Ohio suggest a reduction in that quarter. The panic has exerted a very striking effect upon our foreign brade. Immediately after that crisis our exports were greatly stimulated by forced liquidation and the necessity of importing about $100,000,000 of gold. The four months, November, December, January and February, were each record breakers; the exports of merchandise during that period aggregating $785,000. breakers; the exports of merchandise during that period aggregating $785,000,000,000 over $64,000,000 more than in the same months of the previous year. In the three succeeding months, March, April and May, this gain was entirely lost and turned into an actual decrease, owing to the sudden cessation of exports the shipments of merchandise fell nearly $66,000,000 below the same three months of 1907. This sudden shrinkage was due to the fact that our exportable surplus of grain and other products was practically exhausted, and that there was no further urgency for liquidation. On the import side of the accounts there has been a persistent and very large shrinkage since the panic.—Henry Clews.

Preparations for fall trade are on a fairly liberal scale, testifying to confidence in the future, and jobbers raceive moderate supplementary orders for prompt shipment, while retail sales expand in respuce to seasonable weather. There is some irregularity in reports from the leading industries, footwear factories receiving relatively larger orders than textile mills, while the iron and steel markets still feel the unsettling effects of recent reductions in prices. Building operations increase at many points, creating a better demand for lumber and other materials, but there is still Preparations for fall trade are on r and other materials, but there is still year's volume. Mercantile collections are more prompt and money is abundant, despite continued exports of gold. Agricultural prospects are favorable, but eurnent prices are well maintained because of the small stocks remaining from lest year's crops. Foreign trade returns for May show a decrease of $21,000,000 in exports as compared with last year's movement, but imports declined about trice as much, so that the international trade balance was unusually favorable, and, including the movement of specie, this nation's credit abroad gained $53,000,000, exclusive of the usual intangible factors that are not presented in statisfactors that are not presented in statistical form. For the latest week nierchandise exports from this port alone were $2,664,444 larger than a year ago, while imports decreased $2,404,971.

Failures Last Week.

June 20.—Commercial failures this week in the United States, as reported by R. G. Dun & Co., are 280, against 285 last week, 295 the preceding week and 194 the corresponding week last yaer. Failures in Canada number 26, against 24 last week, 44 the preceding week and 19 last year. Of failures this week in the United States, 90 were in the East, 73 South, 61 West, and 36 in the Pacific States, and 90 report liabilities of $5,000 or more, against 95 last week. Liabilities of commercial failures thus far reported for June are $8,918,561, against $11,523,080 for the same period the previous year.

Live Stock.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards were 41 car loads, composed of 818 cattle, 34 sheep, 56 calves and 75 horses.

The quality of fat cattle was generally good, several lots of the best finished exporters seen on the market this seaton being on sale.

Trade was brisk for exporters at higher quotations, while butchers' were in $200 to $200 to

MARKETS 34 and FINANCE

Tuesday, June 23.—Central Market was a regular strawberry festival this morning, last night's rain brought the berries out in great style and every farmer had a big load this morning. It is estimated that there were from 4,000 to 5,000 crates in—the largest strawberry market, it is said, in ten years. They were selling from $1.25 to $2.00 per crate. Cherries made their first appearance this morning and sold for $1 per basket. Peas have been steadily declining and to-day sold from 30 to 40c. Not potatoes dropped a couple of cents. The meat market was very dull, everything went down about 50c. per cwt. Prices on the rest of the market were steady.

Sometimes He Looks Happy Jack—I wonder what there is about this time of year to always make a fellow feel as though he wanted to get married.

Jim—I don't know. But I've a sure cure for that matrimonial feeling.

Jack—Tell it to me, if you want to save a fellow mortal.

Jim—Go out and watch a man pushing a baby carriage.—New York Times.
