SUPREME COURT SAID BULLION MUST BE GIVEN FAIR TRIAL

Judge Declares City Charter Protects Commissioner From Summary Dismissal

INJUNCTION IS EXTENDED UNTIL FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Secretary that the authorized capital of the Standard Heating and Plumbing Company was $50,000; that 200 shares of capital stock had been sold and that J. W. Mould was vice-president and director of the company.

That Contemned Building. Mr. Biggar stated Mr. Bouillon was present, ready to give evidence, having been subpoenaed as a witness, and that he intended to call on Alderman McKinley and also on Building Inspector Drabble. The latter, he said, would give some evidence which would be interesting in view of the change last night on short notice, of the place of a public meeting, because the building first advertised had been condemned.

City Solicitor Bown, speaking on behalf of the municipality, stated that the dispute appeared to be really between the legislative and administrative branches of the city. His first objection to the granting of an injunction was that the action should be taken by the Attorney-General. It was argued that a private party should be permitted to come in and hold up the city.

Mr. Bown referred to the case of Mount Carmel vs. Shaw, a case in which the city was building a sidewalk and found it necessary to cut down two fine shade trees. Application for injunction was made, but refused. The principle was that where a body exercised a public power, no private citizen had a right to interfere.

Showered No Unfairness. Mr. Bown submitted that the affidavits did not show any unfairness on the part of the council. They showed that a committee had made investigations, and that Mr. Bouillon had been dismissed because he refused to answer certain questions. The court had no right to interfere with the action of the council in this respect.

Must Show Good Cause. On hearing the argument, Mr. Justice Beck declared that he had not a doubt but that the injunction had been properly constituted. The council for the defendant had said that an attempt was being made to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the commissioner. But they had failed to observe the position of the commissioners under the charter. There was a special provision of the charter that a commissioner should not be dismissed without satisfactory cause being shown. This clause made it imperative upon the council to make a judicial or quasi-judicial investigation into the conduct of a commissioner.

In proprietary clubs there was a law that members of a club could not be dismissed without the dictates of natural justice being regarded. This, of course, meant that when a charge was laid against a member he should be given a fair opportunity of answering.

"I have no objection to the affidavits being taken by the council," continued Mr. Justice Beck, "but those principles apply to this case. The facts show that there has been a committee, and a committee has been appointed to investigate, and that committee has never reported. The council, of course, might have taken the matter upon their hands, but it is plain that there has not been a proper quasi-judicial investigation of the charges. In order that a proper investigation be conducted, it is necessary that the council have before them certain charges, that the commissioner be given notice and be called upon to answer. Only after the council had given the charges and answer a bona fide consideration would they be justified in dismissing the commissioner. I have then no hesitation in saying that had the matter been brought before me, as it was before the Chief Justice, that I would have given exactly the same order."

On the application for a new and permanent injunction, Mr. Justice Beck ordered that Mr. O'Connor present his affidavits by Thursday noon, and Mr. Biggar his by Friday at two o'clock, when the motion would be heard and any parties to be cross-examined called to the stand.

Mayor and Aldermen Present. When the motion for an injunction to restrain the members of the city council from proceeding to dismiss Commissioner Bouillon was brought up in the court at eleven o'clock yesterday, following the disposition of some minor applications the room was crowded to the doors. The mayor and all the aldermen were present, and Commissioner Bouillon, who had been subpoenaed as a witness for the plaintiff.

On the request of Mr. O'Connor, the affidavits of C. Gallagher and Alderman James H. McKinley, and Robert Parquharson, setting forth the reasons for applying for the injunction were read, and affidavits of J. D. Hyndman, H. J. Dawson and others were submitted to the court.

Further affidavits submitted were those of W. A. Bismile, one advising that he has been informed by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies that the firm of Gorman, Chaney & Grifley was capitalized at $150,000, with $50,000 paid up, and that W. A. Bismile was the holder of 100 shares of $100 each in the company. The other affidavits of Mr. Bismile was that he had been informed by a communication from the office of the Deputy Provincial

OTAWA BOARD RETICENT.

Board of Trade Will Not Deal With Reciprocity.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—The Ottawa Board of Trade may not commit itself on the reciprocity question. It was learned today that a resolution on reciprocity had been presented for consideration, but had been withdrawn later. President C. S. May did not care to divulge the reason and Secretary Cecil Sibley also was reticent. However, from other sources it was learned that officers of the board were introducing politics into the discussion of the question.

"If we introduced the question of reciprocity," declared one member, "the board would split on party lines and there would be an awful fight. It would likely create that friction we want to avoid."

ROB AND TORTURE WOMAN.

Thieves Blind Storekeeper With Sheets and Apply Sealing Pokes.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 28.—After being bound and gagged with a linen sheet, Mrs. Cecily Healy, a handsome widow, according to what she told the police today, was tortured with a red hot poker by two burglars, who had broken into her home in an attempt to learn the whereabouts of her money.

When help arrived the woman was insensible on the floor, having swooned when the iron was touched to her cheek. When revived she said: "I told them where my money was, and they took it. They put the red hot poker against my cheek again and again. One of them said, 'I guess she's telling the truth.' Both kicked me and left me on the floor." Mrs. Healy was found by neighbors who had heard her screams. The torturers escaped.

London, Feb. 28.—The army estimates for 1911-12 issued yesterday by War Secretary Haldane, show a total of $138,450,000. In an accompanying memorandum, the secretary points out that there is a disquieting shortage of qualified and fit men for the Royal Military College at Sandhurst and suggests that special inducements will be made in order to fill the commissioning ranks.

The sum of $565,000 is provided for the aeronautic branch of the army. Five aeroplanes and three dirigible balloons are now available and these will be supplemented so soon as trials demonstrate what are the best types.
