The Evening Chit-Chat
By RUTH CAMERON

Two or three months ago I wrote an article saying that men did not like forward girls, that the forward girl by her forwardness loses a lot of respect, but also the very thing for which she is trying to trade it—the admiration and love of the opposite sex.

Since then I have received so many letters from girls who say that their attempts to be self-respecting and nice and their consequent unpopularity disprove my statement that I am going to take up the cudgels again in defense of my belief.

For it is still my belief.

But, girls, I did not say that the nice girls would be very popular. I did not say that she would be the girl who would have to split up her dances and fill out a dozen extras to satisfy the admirers who crowd around her at a dance.

What I said, and still affirm, is that the self-respecting girl, other things being equal, has the better chance of winning the average man's admiration and love.

Now please do not translate my terms "self-respect" and "niceness" into prudery.

That is most emphatically what I do not mean.

Nobody, man or woman, loves a prude.

Just be a nice girl, thinking no evil and expecting none. When anything with a possible double meaning is said to you, it is far better to appear not to see the allusion than to pick it up and resent it.

Be jolly. Enter into all healthy funmaking with your men friends as much as you can.

A man likes a girl who is not forward, but that does not mean he likes her to be stiff.

Be friendly, be hearty. Be lively and alert and enthusiastic. You can be all that without being in the least forward or bold or improper, but I think that many times the girls who are trying hard not to be improper overshoot the mark and are stiff and formal.

But as to its being necessary for a girl to allow her casual men friends to take liberties with her in order to win their love—absolutely NO.

The girls who do that sort of thing are often popular, of course, but do you want that sort of popularity?

Do you want to be spoken lightly of when your men friends are speaking of the women they know, or do you want to be one of whom they will say, "She is the right sort. There is nothing easy about her?"

Do you want to be characterized as I overheard a man in the street characterize a girl he was talking about a good deal at the time, as "a good sofa pillow?"

Will the compliments and the chance to go about make up for things like that?

And as for the marrying part of it—men sometimes approach girls in this way, and then afterwards find the girls have admirable qualities beneath the boldness, and marry them for these qualities, but never for love or admiration of the failure to be self-respecting.

One girl who says she has tried very hard to be a nice girl and stigmatizes niceness as a failure with men, ends her letter:

"I realize that youth is passing quickly by with very little pleasure. I am wondering, does it pay?"

Please, please don't feel that way, girls.

Self-respect does pay every time. Not only good men but all men admire it. I know of a rake, a man about town, almost what we call slyly "a degenerate," who said, "I shall never marry. The right kind of girl won't have me and I won't marry the other kind."

Don't be too formal, too chip-on-the-shouldery.

If you aren't a masculine success maybe it's a tendency in that direction that's to blame. Try to overcome it without going too far in the other direction.

Don't be a prude, but be a nice, jolly, self-respecting girl, and I believe with all my heart your own shall come unto you and that it will be worth waiting for.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which stem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

Save your pound powder tins to steam brown-bread tin, to hold your pressed veal or beef, and corn-meal mush to fry.

If a garment is faded and one wishes to bleach it white boil it in water to which a goodly amount of cream of tartar is added.

Baskets of raffia are most attractive receptacles for holding flowers. Those of birch bark, too, are used extensively this year.

To prevent potatoes from becoming discolored when boiled, peel them and let them lie in cold water at least an hour before boiling.

When cutting cookies, have a dish of flour at hand into which the cutter may be frequently dipped; then the dough will not stick.

Sometimes dishes become badly stained from tea; a vigorous rubbing with salt will probably remove every vestige of discoloration.

A good remedy for cold in the chest is vaseline and turpentine well rubbed into the chest and between the shoulders in the back.

If one has the opportunity to get red cedar chips, do not fail to obtain a supply. They are excellent for keeping moths from clothing.

Before putting skates away for the summer soak them in sour milk whey. Then give them a coat of kerosene and wrap them in tissue paper.

Try stuffing squabs with very tender celery cut fine and seasoned highly with pepper, salt and butter. The stuffing will be found delicious.

By sprinkling a goodly amount of salt over a carpet five or ten minutes before sweeping, there will be little dust raised when the sweeping is done.

When boiling cabbage cut the cabbage in quarters and slip each quarter into a separate cheesecloth bag. Then, when it is cooked, it comes out intact.

If there are stains from machine oil on a white garment, rub the spots well with a cloth wet in ammonia before washing with soap, and they will disappear.

Your dealer has an invigorator that will grow hair or money back. The time to take care of your hair is when you have hair to take care of.

If your hair is getting thin, gradually falling out, it can't be long before the spot appears.

The greatest remedy to stop the hair from falling is SALVIA, the Great American Hair Grower, first discovered in England. SALVIA furnishes nourishment to the hair roots and acts so quickly that people are amazed.

And remember, it destroys the Dandruff germ, the little pest that saps the life that should go to the hair from the roots.

SALVIA is sold by all dealers under a positive guarantee to cure Dandruff, stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp in ten days, or money back. A large bottle costs 50 cents. The word "SALVIA" (Latin for sage) is on every bottle.
