Iles, the Treharris harrier, who walked well in last year's race at the Stadium, led in capital style for the first two hours. Later on W. Brown assumed the lead, and in the next hour Ross was in front. Between the third and fourth hours Iles left the track for good, having covered 19 miles 3 laps. During the fifth hour Ross retired, and this gave the lead to Payne, who at the completion of five hours had scored 31 miles 100 vards.

Payne continued to walk splendidly and still maintained a strong lead at the end of the seventh hour (43 miles 850 yards). About this period of the race several competitors retired, among them being J. Butler.

As fully anticipated by the speed at which Payne was moving, the record was beaten at 51 miles, the North Shields man doing 8 hrs. 16 mins. 22 sec. for that distance, and clipping 29 mins. 13 sec. off W. ### Publicity for Newfoundland.

Newfoundland seems destined to receive ample publicity for her forest nection of the Daily Mail with Grand Falls.

It will be remembered that the Daily Mirror, the Harmsworth Illustrated Daily, sent out an artist of their staff to take cinematograph views of the pulp and paper industry at Grand Falls with a view to their reproduction at the Crystal Palace during the Festival of Empire. The views were taken but the Festival was postponed on account of King Ed-
