

WEAR A DOROTHY DODD

And forget your foot troubles. You will no longer feel that drag to your step, that dead weight, that tired feeling.

THE ELEGANCE
—OF—
Gold Medal SHOES
IS THE RESULT OF BOTH BEAUTY OF DESIGN AND BEAUTY OF FIT.

MOST SHOES SIMPLY COVER THE FEET.

Both Dorothy Dodd and Gold Medal Footwear support, brace and aid the feet. One well fitted pair will prove this.

Geo. A. Slater's Famous Invictus Shoes are Flexible.

The foot feels as if it is rested on a cushion instead of a hard leather bottom.

The most thing about breaking in New Shoes is the hard stiff feeling of the soles. Every step is an effort to make the leather bend. You instantly notice the difference when you put on a pair of G. A. Slater's Invictus Shoes.

Shannahan Tells About Being Brought to the Races When He Was a Boy.

Sixty-five years ago I remember being brought to the races in the arms of a "steady girl" who was ordered by my mother to be very careful of me and bring me home early if it looked like rain.

I remember being dressed in a very stiff robe with an endless amount of pins stuck in here and there, which later during the day stuck into my sides and made me roar. On the road down the servant girl went into a shop to get some spruce beer and ginger breads. When she had half of the beer drunk she put the tumbler with a lot of crumbs mixed with the beer up to my mouth, and as I disliked the stuff I hunched and kicked, twisted and refused to drink. The woman behind the counter said I was a very cross child, and as I could not speak I growled at her the best way I knew how. The girl after finishing what was in the tumbler gave me a tuck up higher in her arms and again trotted off with me in the direction of Kitty Vitty Pon.

On what a crowd are elbowing their way along! Now and again the girl gets a push which nearly knocked me out of her arms, and often my head comes in violent contact with her forehead. Then I cry again and the girl gets vexed a little and starts in to grumble a bit. On we go. The girl has a stiff pair of seven and sixpenny boots on, which creek and creak on the ground like a solid ball. Consequently I am getting shaken up a bit and I howl again. The sun is getting blazing hot and everybody and everything is warm; but to add to it an old woman who knew my mother stops the girl and me to ask about my mother's health. She tickles me under the chin with a bony finger and runs another finger in my mouth to find out how many teeth I have. I have none, but to make the girl feel good she tells her I will have a splendid set a little later on. After tucking out two pink bows off my dress and giving me a smile that would frighten a collector, she departs, leaving me and the girl free once more.

We have reached King's Bridge. Here a wonderful large crowd of people try to head one another and therefore I came in for a big knocking about. A rough girl nearly knocks the wind out of me as he hustles does in a waltz. After about half an hour Liz comes back. She stretches out her arms and takes me up and conveys me to the band gallery. A great crowd are here and I come in for a bit of a crushing, but I meet a new acquaintance in the shape of another baby, a boy like myself. I am told he's always quiet, never wakes once he closes his eyes; in fact never was any trouble since the day he was born. I have watched that baby ever since right on through life. He never bawled because he had no reason to; fortune favored him, and to-day he resides on Circular Road while I climb the hilly slopes of the poorest locality. Strange world this. Some people say there's no such thing as luck. I wonder if it's true.

After looking at the quiet baby sleep overcame me, and Liz and Jim hired a cheap fit-out and I was soon safe and sound in my little cot. (Children bawl) and get blamed for it. 'Tis no fun to be bawling on a hot day, and the babies are not always to blame. Look for the cause. TIM SHANNAHAN.

Notes From Harbor Grace.

Mr. F. Brazil, agent for the Imperial Tobacco Co., is in town staying at the Cochrane.

Magistrate Fitzgerald, wife and children are in town visiting friends. Rev. H. Fisher arrived by the express on Saturday and will have charge of the Presbyterian Church here for the next couple of weeks, during the absence of the regular pastor, Rev. Mr. Coffin. Mr. Fisher's sermons yesterday were much enjoyed.

The Presbyterian Sunday School picnic takes place at Shannon Park one day next week.

Mr. Selby Hawkins, of Boston, arrived in town on Saturday night and will spend a month or so with friends here. Mrs. Hawkins accompanies him.

A very pretty wedding took place at the R. C. Cathedral at 2.30 p.m. yesterday when Mr. Maurice Sullivan, formerly of this town, but now of Bell Island, and Miss Hannah Mary Collins were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at the High Altar by Rt. Rev. Bishop March, D.D., in the presence of a large assemblage of friends of the contracting parties. The bride is a daughter of Mr. James Collins of Riverhead, and niece of Capt. Michael Collins of H.M.C., St. John's. For the past 13 years Miss Collins has been a trusted assistant to Mrs. Farrell at the very popular hotel known as "Cochrane House," and in that capacity has made many friends who will join with us in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan much happiness. The bride looked very pretty in a suit of indigo blue, with hat to match. Miss Maggie Thompson, of Spaniard's Bay, the bride's cousin, and Miss Aggie Banville were bridesmaids, both carrying pretty bouquets of flowers; and Mr. James A. Power acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony the party drove to Cochrane House where a sumptuous luncheon was partaken of. About 4 o'clock the happy couple boarded the s.s. Euphrates for Bell Island, and were accompanied as far as Carbonear by some fifty or so of their friends. The "nuptial" rice was lavishly showered on the newly wedded pair as they were leaving their hotel and also when boarding the steamer. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan take with them the best wishes of their numerous friends here for a long and very happy wedded life. A very large number of pretty and useful presents testify to the esteem in which the bride was held here.

A number of men are now employed making a road from the east end of Lady Lake to connect with Rocky Point Road. This road will lead to a much better site for the annual regatta than formerly and will be a shorter route to the pond.

Mr. Frank Walsh, lately working with the Parker & Monroes Shoe Co., St. John's, arrived by train on Friday and left again on Saturday evening to take a position as brakeman with the Reid Nfld. Co.

NOTE OF THANKS.—The Brothers and sisters of the late Dr. Allan wish to thank all friends who gave kind assistance in their sudden and overwhelming sorrow. They would sincerely thank those who expressed their tender sympathy by letters and telegrams and by floral wreaths and crosses; the Highland Brigade for the touching tribute to their brother's memory in playing a lament in their march past his residence, as well as in sending a guard of honor to attend the funeral; the O.C.C. band for their kind consideration in cancelling their concert, and all others who may have in any way helped to lessen their sorrow.

The Sirocco from south west which has kept Boston sizzling for the past few days met its match to-day in a heavy electrical storm from the northward, the mercury dropping 10 degrees in an hour as a result of the heavy downpour of rain. The relief came none too soon for the oppressive conditions were becoming unbearable, nearly a dozen cases of prostration being reported at the hospitals while doubtless many more were equally affected but treated at home; while the sky is overcast to night and more rain seems imminent the weatherman announces fair weather for the next two days.

That will be when the Government here has been assured that the disease has been stamped out in England.

The Grand Trunk is completely tied up. Vice-President Murdoch said. (We are almost back to normal conditions), the Grand Trunk officials say. So the public can pay their money and take their choice. The Grand Trunk says (yesterday we said we would have night freight trains on the eastern division, and up to 3 o'clock this evening we have moved 23 and are still sending them out, so acts speak for themselves). Mr. Murdoch declares that this is all bluff, that the men are standing pat, and that there is no change in the situation. He has heard nothing from MacKenzie King consequently takes it for granted that the Department has given up all idea of intervention. Mr. Murdoch being shown the Grand Trunk statement re the moving of freight said that about two per cent of the regular freight trains are being moved.

League Football.

Collegians Beat C. E. I. 2 Goals to 1.
Yesterday evening ideal weather conditions prevailed when the C. E. I. and Collegians faced each other in the League football match on St. George's Field.

A balmy breeze blew from the westward and the teams lined up at 7 o'clock as follows:—

C. E. I.—Miller, goal; Hunt, Hayter, backs; LeMessurier, Hallett, Hussey, halves; Smith, James, Godden, Dobson, Reid, forwards.

Collegians.—Butler, goal; Thomas, Gear, backs; Pike, Haddon, Sparks, halves; James, Penney, Aitken, Bastow, Gear, forwards.

Winning the toss the Collegians defended the western goal, and started in with a rush on their opponents goal on which they kept pressing for fully 15 minutes after the start, when Aitken passed the leather to James who sent a difficult shot to Miller, beating him and notching up the first goal for the Collegians.

The C. E. I. now put on steam and had a couple of tries to equalize but were successfully blocked, and the half time whistle blew. Collegians, 1 goal; C. E. I., nil.

When the ball was again kicked off in the second half it was seen that the C. E. I. would work hard to retrieve what they had lost, and they did to the surprise of their opponents and the satisfaction of their friends. For several minutes they played with great dash and a couple of nice shots went too wide of the mark. The Collegians now worked the sphere up field, when Penney, from inside right shot and landed the ball in the net, scoring the second and last goal for the Collegians.

Play now became brisk and in a few minutes one of the Collegians

Regatta Not Postponed

A report has been current the past two days that the Regatta had been postponed to the 10th of August. This is untrue. The Regatta will be held on to-morrow week, Wednesday, August 3rd, weather permitting, and it is very likely that His Excellency Sir Ralph Williams will leave the Plover at some point contiguous to the railway and will journey here to be present at it.

Late For Traps.
People who came by the Fogota say that recent arrivals from the Labrador assert that traps were "dribbled" out at Black Tickle and Salmon Blight on the Labrador this season until the 15th of this month. This was owing to scarcity of cod and bad weather, and never before was it known for twine to be put out so late in the season. There is no fish there for traps or boats.

The Invermore spilled for the Labrador at 10 o'clock last night.
