Is Now in Full Swing.

EVERYTHING must go regardless of price. All profits will be completely eliminated. We are determined to carry no old stock into our New Store. We are unable to give a detailed list of all the Goods which we offer during this Great Event as such details would exhaust every square inch of space in this paper. Suffice it to say that every article in the store is offered at prices that will at once appeal to the shrewd, sanguine, silver-saving shoppers. To expedite matters we have arranged the Goods so that you can enter, select what you require, wrap it yourself, pay the Cashier, and proceed on your way. Kindly tell your friends and your friends' friends that there are good things to be had for small money at DEVINE'S GREAT REMOVAL SALE.

MONDAY, Sept. 18, 1911.

Strike Ended.

On Saturday we announced that the strike was practically settled, but that the endorsement of the terms of the agreement would be taken up by the Longshoremen's Protective Union on Saturday night. We are glad to find that the amicable arrangement has been finalized, and that the strong common-sense of those concerned has not only prevented the involvement of many others who were not parties to the original dispute, but has found means to surmount the original difficulty. We congratulate the parties to the settlement on the spirit of conciliation which has enabled them to come to an understanding with one another.

Cordelia Sold.

We learn to-day that the Cordelia, the well known barque owned by Bowring Bros., has been sold to a Norwegian firm. The transfer was made two weeks ago and three of her crew arrived here by the Mongolian Saturday night. The Cordelia is a vessel of large dimensions and has large carrying capacity, is built of iron, and though old is of fine substantial construction. Speaking to Mr. Munn to-day he said that he believes the ship will be replaced by another vessel, possibly of larger size, and that in addition to canvas as a means of propulsion she will also be fitted with either kerosene or gasoline motors.

At Gower-st. Church.

That Gower St. Church has been wise in its choice of the Rev. Dr. Rogers as pastor was fully evidenced last night, when he took for his text 1 Kings 22: 48—"Jehoshaphat made ships of Tharsish to go to Ophir for gold, but they went not, for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber." The rev. preacher went on to show man's purposes, his failures and their cause. His sermon was punctuated by illustrations that no one present could fail to see the points which the rev. gentleman wished to bring out. From the start to the finish of his discourse the rev. pastor held the undivided attention of the large congregation present.

Killed by Dogs.

This morning when Mr. Peter Casey went to his field on Pleasant Street he was shocked to find that six fine sheep had been killed by dogs during the night. They were left out grazing and these brutes, which came from all directions, dug under the pickets with their paws and entered the place. Mr. Casey loses $50 by this and the loss is a serious one for him. These hungry and ferocious brutes should once and for all be destroyed.

ANOTHER STORM APPROACHING
—To-day No. 3 storm signal has been ordered up along the coast from St. John's to Burin, indicating the probability of a gale which will blow in an easterly direction and will likely be accompanied by more rain.

MINARD'S LINIMENT FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

Will Sue Government.

Capt. Geo. Hann of the schr. Merle Perks, arrived here a few days ago from St. Lawrence. Capt. Hann is intensely indignant at the manner in which he has been treated by the Government. Two of his men were stricken with smallpox while the vessel was on her voyage from Sydney with a coal cargo for St. John's and the vessel was delayed for 55 days in St. Lawrence and held for that period on quarantine. A doctor he says only visited the ship once, coming from Burin and the captain contends that he should have been allowed to come to St. John's where he could place the men in hospital and where his ship could have disinfected and fumigated and allowed to discharge her cargo in a few days. He was kept in St. Lawrence for 55 days though the disease was of the mild type which prevailed here last spring. We learn that Capt. Hann will sue the Government for $25,000 for loss sustained in the unnecessary delay imposed on him.

Blood Poisoning.

We learn from passengers who came from Harbor Grace by train to-day that Master Fred Buckingham, whose case is referred to in another column, is not likely to recover. Rev. Fr. Finn attended him last night and prepared him for death. He was taken ill about a week ago and developed blood poisoning through no visible cause. He is only 8 years of age.

St. Joseph, Lewis, July 14, 1903. Minard's Liniment Co., Limited. Gentlemen—I was badly kicked by my horse last May and after using several preparations on my leg nothing would do. My leg was as black as jet. I was laid up in bed for a fortnight and could not walk. After using three bottles of your MINARD'S LINIMENT I was perfectly cured, so that I could start on the road. J. DUBES, Commercial Traveler.

Visiting Newfoundland

Mr. E. V. Salaman, Managing Director of Messrs. Lever Brothers, Limited, Port Sunlight, England, arrived here by the Mongolian on a visit to Newfoundland.

Mr. A. E. Perkins who makes an annual visit to this country, and who is the Foreign and Colonial representative of Messrs. Lever Brothers, Port Sunlight, arrived by the Mongolian on Saturday night and will remain in the country for about two weeks. Both gentlemen looked forward to their visit here with pleasurable anticipation. On leaving here Mr. Perkins will make an extended tour through the West Indies and South America.

Natural Curio.

Mr. Joe Wadden, Water Street, West, has on exhibition at his shoe-maker shop a stuffed young white-coat with one eye in the centre of its forehead. The seal was found on the ice by William Kiely, Petty Harbor, April 16th, 1911.

OBITUARY.

There died this morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Jas. J. Trelogan, Water Street, a venerable and highly respected lady in the person of Mrs. Theresa Collins. Mrs. Collins had reached the very advanced age of 84 years, and was a woman who had many friends both in St. John's and all over Newfoundland. She leaves three daughters—Mrs. J. I. Trelogan, St. John's; Mrs. Dyer, of Lynn, Mass.; and Mrs. O'Flaherty, of Northern Bay, while a son is also left to mourn her, Mr. Ted Collins, who also resides at Lynn. She was mother of the late James J. Collins, and her husband, the late Wm. Collins, was for many years sheriff at Old Perlican. Many other relatives survive her, including His Lordship Bishop March, of Harbor Grace, who is a nephew of the deceased lady. To the relatives and friends of the deceased the Telegram extends its condolence.

At the R. C. Cathedral!

Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roche preached at the R. C. Cathedral at Vespers last night, taking his text from St. Luke, chap 7, 11-16 verse, "The raising to life of the son of the widow of Nain." And when Jesus saw her He had compassion on her and said unto her: weep not, and He came and touched the bier and they that carried him stood, still; and He said: "Young man, I say unto thee, arise. And he that was dead sat up and began to speak, and He delivered him to his mother." The rev. preacher adapted the text to the duties of mothers to their children, and delivered one of the most instructive and practical sermons heard in the Cathedral for a long time. The responsibility of the early training of the children rests almost entirely with the mother. The children learn to lip their prayers at her knees, and the mother's teaching and example influences the lives of the children ever afterwards. On the father rests the duty of providing food, clothing and the means to support the family: such a duty keeps him away from home, he most of the day, it is therefore the
