ROME, To-day. The evidence thus far adduced con erning the black box taken from the om of Cardinal Rampolla the day he died, tends to show the Cardinal was fearful that it would be tampered The box which is believed by persons to have contained his ast will, and other papers of the Cardinal, was placed under his pillow by he Cardinal the day he was forced to ake to his bed with a seizure which shortly afterwards caused his death. after the Cardinal passed away, and while his body was being preparcan be found who has seen it, whether it disappeared before the people were admitted to the death chamber to view the body is not known. Negotiations are proceeding between the various heirs of the Cardinal to see f it is not possible for them to reach an agreement for the division of the estate under the will made by Car inal Rampolla in 1889.

DELAWARE, Breakwater, To-Day
The assistance of the revenue cutter has been asked to quell a disturbance among the crew of the British steamer Baron Dalmeny, which returned here to-day with two firemen in irons, and four others so badly cut that their recovery is doubtful. The trouble started among the Chinese firemen, but from what cause could not be ascertained. Captain Gordon declares that knives had been smuggled aboard, and that he will not preced to sea until the riotous crew is replaced. The Dalmeny sailed from Philadelphia yesterday for Avonmouth.

NEW YORK, To-day.

Two men were drowned in East River and ten men, the crews of two barges, wrecked on the New Jersey coast are given up as lost, is the toll in human lives of the storm which swept over the vicinity yesterday at Seabright, N.J. Most of the houses have either been wrecked or surrounded by water. Seventy families are homeless. The damage to property is estimated at a million, most of it is borne by Seabright and other points along the northern section of New Jersey coast.

ROME, Dec. 26.

The scaling up of the late Cardinal Pampolla's apartments is denounced as a high-handed and illegal proceedings in some quarters here. The legality of the act is questioned because it was carried out without the authorization of Judical officials, but simply by a Notary on the request of Monsignor Dibosogno. Administrator of St. Peters. The Administrator desired to insure the safety of documents of great interest to the Church, which he feared might be lost. No trace of the Cardinal's missing will has been

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., To-day.
The garment workers, who have been on strike since July 15th, were notified yesterday at a mass meting that the treasury of the Union was empty, and no further strike benefits could be paid. It was decided to take a vote to determine whether or not to capitulate and return to work on

LONDON, Dec. 26.

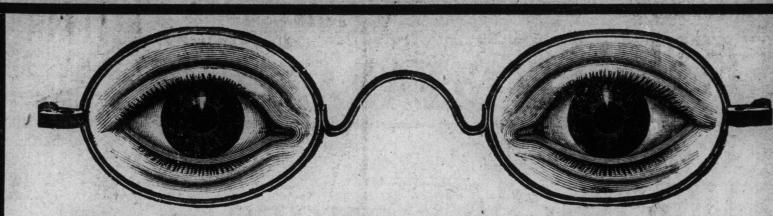

The strike of Municipal workers at Leeds ended in a flasco, despite the wishes of the leaders of the men, who returned to work on the city's terms. The strike lasted a fortnight, but there was no sympathy with strike's. Many citizens acted as strike breakers, ran street cars, drove garbage carts and did other menial acts in order to defeat the strikers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26
The loss of the Danish research ship in the West Indies caused a peculiar regret to-day in the Danish Colony whose members are acquainted with her important mission. The news of the wreck came yesterday from St. Thomas. All those on board the schooner were saved but the re-
