The Kaiser When A Boy.

Even when a child the Kaiser was a very precocious youth. The late Mr. W. P. Frith, the famous painter, used to tell a story of the Kaiser's childhood. Wilhelm, when a little boy, was staying with the artist, and on one occasion wiped so much color on his face when in the studio that Mr. Frith had to remove it with turpentine. This painful process annoyed the rebellious young prince, and at its conclusion he administered a violent kick to the surprised artist and then flung himself under a table, where he yelled until he was tired.
 While Mr. Frith's method of removing paint from the Kaiser's face was not altogether unlike our process of Dry Cleaning, we are exceedingly grateful that our patrons do not adopt the Emperor's way of showing their appreciation of our good services.
