QUEBEC STRUCK FROM LIST

No Volunteers for Third Contingent Will Be Enrolled There.

Rearrangement of the Officers Cons quent Upon Two Extra Squadrons Having Been Accepted - Dates For Recruiting in Outario-These Will Be Dec. 27 and 28, With Cel. Otter in

Ottawa, Dec. 17.—The western members of the third contingent passed through Ottawa last night en route for Halifax. Col. Evans, commanding the force, will leave this morning for Halifax, leaving the recruiting of the two extra squadthis morning for Halifax, leaving the recruiting of the two extra squadrons to the direction of the Militia Department. Arrangements for this were made yesterday, but subsequently a change was made. Quebec was struck from the list of places at which volunteers are to be enrolled, and Kemptville substituted. The five mounted riference. five mounted riflemen to have been enrolled at the Ancient Capital will be raised in the right royal little half-way town between Ottawa and Prescott.

Eleven officers will be required the two new squadrons, and the lotment of these will obviously cessitate a re-arrangement of the list prepared for the original squadrons. There will be two more captaincies. The addition of two squadrons will also mean the apsquarons will also mean the appointment of another major, besides the second in command, and it is altogether likely this commission will be given to Lieut.-Col. Cameron, D. S.O., of the 5th Royal Scots of Montreal.

The names of the eleven new officers have been sent to His Excellency for transmission to the War Office.
