

Bounced!

Duke of Orleans Expelled From a London Club.

Chinaman Beheaded for the Murder of a Missionary.

Spanish-American War Called a Blessing in Disguise—Launch of a British Cruiser

Paris, May 19.—The Duke of Orleans, in consequence of the attitude of the committees of three London clubs toward him because of his letter to M. Willette, complimenting him upon his insulting caricature of Queen Victoria, has resigned his membership in the St. James and the Marlborough clubs. As to the Bachelors' Club, which demanded his resignation, the duke writes to the president from Venice, under date of May 15, refusing to comply with the demand, and characterizing the summons as unbecomingly. After expressing his deep respect for Queen Victoria and the other members of the British royal family, the duke says: "You have forgotten that you addressed the letter of the king who made France. My intention was to resign, but your action makes me change my mind. I refuse to resign. I desire you to deliberate on the ease of my name. It is important to know if your hospitality signifies bondage, and if you intend to abandon the ancient traditions of individual liberty, which made the strength and grandeur of your country. I await your decision, whatever it may be, mine is taken."

BREHEADED.
News has been received of the punishment meted out to the murderers of Missionary Brooks. Fifteen men were tried for the crime before the provincial judge at Chimanfu, and C. W. Campbell, British Consul, was developed at the trial that only three were guilty of the actual killing, and one of these dealt the final fatal blow. This one, being the most culpable in the Chinese criminal code, was beheaded in the presence of the British consul. Another, who was only a shade lighter in guilt, was sentenced to strangulation. A third was sentenced to life imprisonment, and four others to ten years' imprisonment. Four head men from the villages to which Mr. Brooks had been taken, having failed to protect him, were flogged three times in public, and others to ten years' imprisonment. Two village elders of the hamlet near the scene of the murder are to pay the cost of a memorial tablet to be erected at the scene of the murder, at a cost of 500 taels. The governor of the province has paid 9,000 taels for the following purposes: To build a memorial chapel at Ping Yan, Mr. Brooks' station; to place a memorial tablet in his school at Canterbury, England, and to cover the loss of the Episcopal churches in that district.

BRITISH CRUISER LAUNCHED.
Glasgow, May 19.—The Fairfield Shipbuilding Company on Wednesday afternoon launched the British first-class armored cruiser, Aboukir. She is 140 feet in length and has a displacement of 12,000 tons. Her engines are expected to develop 21,000 horse-power under natural draft, and her guaranteed speed is 21 knots per hour. She is fitted with 20 Belleville boilers, and her armor plates are of specially hardened steel. She will carry a crew of 750.

BLESSING IN DISGUISE.
London, May 19.—Gen. S. L. Woodford, ex-minister to Spain, is painting a glowing picture of the future of Spain. "The loss of her colonies," he said, "means Spain's national rejuvenation, and leaves her statesmen free to work out the destiny of their own country. The war with the United States was a blessing in disguise. I have unbounded faith in the nation's future. It is blessed with rich natural resources and a patriotic people. Increased taxes will subsidize as soon as Alfonso's subjects realize that the additional revenue is necessary to maintain national honor."

CABLE NOTES.
M. Menier may have serious trouble in forcing settlers off his island of Antioch.

Columbian government troops won in a bloody 70-hour battle near Colon on May 11.

EDDY'S NERVE.
Lansing, Mich., May 19.—Ernest G. Eddy, of this city, a member of company E, and a Spanish war soldier, was cleaning the sawdust from a saw in his father's mill at South Riley, when his glove caught and the hand was severed at the wrist, hanging only

AGONIZING SUSPENSE.

The Terrible Situation of a St Vincent Lady.

St. Vincent, Ont., May 19.—No other man in Canada has gone through a period of such extreme anxiety, alternating with despair, as Mr. Joseph McCullough, a highly respected retired farmer, of this place, experienced during the past summer. Last spring his family physician pronounced Mrs. McCullough to be suffering from an incurable case of Neurasthenia, or Nerve Exhaustion. She was extremely nervous, hysterical and despondent. She had nervous rheumatic pains, palpitations and sharp pains in her left side and over the kidneys; her feet were perpetually cold, her face ghastly pale, urine highly-colored, scalding, and leaving a brick-dust deposit, sour stomach, splitting headaches and pain after eating oppressed her. She had no appetite, could not sleep and lost flesh startlingly. It seemed to her friends that she was "going into decline." The physician said her only hope of relief lay in the Weir-Mitchell treatment. This being so costly was out of the question, and her husband believed there was no hope. He read a newspaper article highly recommending Dr. Arnold's English Tonic Pills about this time, and decided to try them. Soon a change for the better came, and day by day the patient improved. All now she is as well, strong and vigorous as ever she was. Her recovery is due entirely to Dr. Arnold's English Tonic Pills—the only remedy that cures disease by killing the germs that cause it. Every other medicine she used failed.

Dr. Arnold's English Tonic Pills, the only medicine on earth that cures disease by killing the germs that cause it, are sold by all druggists at 25c a box; sample size 25c, or sent by mail on receipt of price by the Arnold Chemical Co., Limited, Canada Life Bldg., 5th Street, Toronto.

FIVE GIRLS IN SOLDIER CLOTHES

Two of Them Taken From a Train Carrying Troops on Their Way to Cuba.

Chicago, May 19.—Five girls are missing from their homes in Waukegan, Lake Forest, Winnetka and Fort Sheridan, and there is reason to believe three of them, disguised as soldiers, are on board the train now carrying the third battalion of the Fifth United States Infantry to New York on its way to Cuba. The other two are in jail, one in this city and one in Hammond, Ind. As the train was passing over the Belt Line on its way from Fort Sheridan to the tracks of the Nickel-Plate today, Lieut. Reeves found a soldier so undersized and effeminate looking that he wondered how such a stripling could have passed muster. He questioned the youngster so closely that the soldier began to weep and confessed to being a woman. She said her sweetheart was an enlisted man of the battalion, and she had intended going to Cuba with him. She said she was Jessie Sherwood. She refused to give the name of her lover. She was turned over to the police at the Ninety-fifth street station. When the train had gone, Jessie remarked to the police that although she had been caught there were four other girls disguised as soldiers, who she hoped would be more fortunate. This information was telegraphed to Lieut. Reeves at Hammond, Ind. Another search brought another of the truants to light. The girl, who gave her name as Mary Brown, was turned over to the police at Hammond. Whether Lieut. Reeves found any more girls soldiers after leaving Hammond has not been reported.

The Sherwood girl insists that five girls boarded the train when it pulled out of Fort Sheridan. She refuses to give their names. She says they have been in hiding for several days, and knew that their absence had been reported to the police. W. R. Wallace, of Waukegan, step-father of the girl, came to Chicago tonight and took her home.

WHIRLED AWAY

Texas Girl Carried a Quarter of a Mile and Escaped Without a Scratch.

Houston, Texas, May 19.—To be blown more than one-fourth of a mile by a raging tornado is something remarkable, even though the victims were blown a quarter of a mile, surrounded on all sides by trees, houses, timbers and all the other debris that a tornado gathers into itself in its wild rage, carrying through the air as if over parts of a city. Only yesterday a girl, named Mary, was carried a quarter of a mile, and escaped without a scratch. That was the experience of Miss Milton in the tornado that passed over parts of Brazoria county last week. When she was picked up by some neighbors her body was apparently unharmed, her respiration was labored and her pulse was slow. Medical assistance was procured, and restoratives applied; they availed nothing. Three days after her experience she began to regain her senses, only to lose them again in a delirium which was feared would cause her death. Only yesterday did she recover consciousness sufficiently to talk coherently, and her statement as to her sensation during the storm is given below:

"When I saw the cloud coming and I stood up in the bed, while my mother and sister were on the floor alongside, I saw the storm approaching, when all of a sudden it struck the house with terrific force, everything was whirled like an express train. I was carried upward, higher and higher—then all was blank. The next thing I knew was when I was lying on the ground in a delirious state. I was carried a quarter of a mile, and I was very indistinct—like a dream, and I knew nothing more until I recovered my senses yesterday."

When her body was found a thorough examination made by Dr. I. S. Rogers failed to show a bruise or scratch. She showed all the symptoms, he says, of a nervous shock, and it is believed by many that this condition was superinduced by the electrical currents in the air. Miss Milton is rapidly recovering.

There were a number of strange freaks played by the wind. In one instance a zinc tub was twisted and wrapped around a fence post, while was left standing, while other posts for a distance of several rods were torn up and laid flat. A can from Garza, a distance of nine miles, was found at Little Elm, while boughs and leaves of oak trees were also found at the latter place, where there is not an oak tree nearer than five miles.

COMMON LAW

MARRIAGE

Entitled the Wife to $10,000 Alimony—Wedding Stopped Almost at the Altar.

Detroit, May 19.—Judge Donovan divorced Mary from James Clark and gave her $10,000 alimony. The couple were never formally married, but as they had lived together for over 20 years as husband and wife, and had two children it constituted a common law marriage. Mr. Clark is a wealthy man. After the couple started living together in Detroit, they moved to Goderich, Ont. A few years ago he left her and went to Buffalo. In the meantime one of the children, a daughter, was married. Her husband went to Buffalo to see James Clark, his father-in-law, and Mr. Clark informed him that he was married to another woman, and that he had never been married to Mrs. Mary Clark, and did not intend to return to her.

POISON IN A KISS.
The manner in which Albertina Kleinsmith claims that her husband Michael attempted to slay her. In the divorce proceedings at Clinton, Ill., Mrs. Kleinsmith stated that her husband had once offered to kiss and make up, and she, being delighted at the proposal, acquiesced, only to find that her husband had covered his lips with poison, and that shortly after the kiss she became violently ill and her life was despaired of.

REFUSED TO MARRY A DIVORCEE.
New York, May 19.—The wedding

of Mrs. Clio Hinton Huneker, the sculptress, and William Bracken, capitalist, did not take place at the Church of the Heavenly Rest on Wednesday as intended. The guests had assembled and the wedding march was about to begin when Rev. Dr. Parker Morgan, the pastor, asked the prospective bride and groom to come to his study.

"Are you a divorcee, madam?" the pastor inquired. "Yes, I am divorced, but what difference does that make?" asked Mrs. Huneker, bursting into tears. "All in this world," replied Dr. Morgan. "I will never officiate at the marriage of a divorced person or allow it to be solemnized in my church." The party entered their carriages and went to Delmonico's. Messengers were sent scurrying around town to find some clergyman with more lax views than Dr. Morgan, and just before 2 o'clock they were successful. Rev. Dr. Evans, pastor of Russell Sage's church, officiated.

MARRIED ON DEATH.
In New York on Thursday, Edward Hall, aged 25 years, went to a department store on One Hundred and Third street, where Mary Brannigan, age 24, was at work, and shot the girl because she refused to marry him. After firing two shots Hall placed the revolver in his pocket and calmly walked to the front of the store, where he was arrested. When the ambulance reached the store Miss Brannigan was dead.

CONFESSED HIS CROOKEDNESS.
Havana, May 18.—W. H. Reeves, deputy auditor of the island, confessed at midnight and gave up $4,500 given to him by C. P. W. Neeley, the arrested financial agent of posts at Havana, to perform certain services the day he left.

TWO MURDERERS SENTENCED.
Birmingham, Ala., May 18.—Frank Duncan and John Manning, alleged safe crackers, charged with the murder of Policeman J. W. Adams, on the night of March 27, have been found guilty, the jury fixing Manning's sentence at death and giving Duncan a life term.

DISASTROUS EXPLOSION.
Ashley, Ill., May 18.—Reports have been received to the effect that two men were killed and seven injured, three fatally, by the explosion of the boiler of the locomotive attached to a southbound freight train on the Illinois Central Railroad at Dubois. The dead are: Charles Pricke, engineer, Centerville, Ill., and Tom Wright, Odell, Ill.

A SMOKE THAT COST $50,000.
Webster, S. D., May 19.—Fire here early this morning, caused by a Standard Oil Company lit his pipe in the company's plant, throwing the match on the floor, where it set fire to a pile of waste, and other material. The Standard Oil sheds, the Farmers' and Merchants' Barge and Strong Company and Empire elevators were destroyed. It is estimated that the elevators held 50,000 bushels of wheat.

BURGULARS AT BURLINGTON.
Burlington, Ont., May 19.—On Thursday night R. G. Baxter's private bank was entered by burglars. The gain was gained by prying open the storm door at the rear of the building, and cutting out one of the panels on the inside door. The vault and safe were blown open with nitro-glycerine, and the contents completely destroyed, and the loss to the same will be about $300, fully covered by insurance in the Bankers' Mutual Casualty Company of Des Moines, Iowa. There was nothing stolen, and no one was injured, which the burglars left on the floor of the vault. The robbers first broke into the blacksmith shop of Mr. Riggers, where they procured the tools. A dispatch has been received from the Bankers' Casualty Company, offering a reward for the capture of the burglars.

ARE YOU DEAF?

Do You Hear That Buzzing, Roaring, or Whistling Sound in Your Ears? Japanese Catarrh Cure Stops These Noises and Restores Your Hearing—It Permanently Cures Catarrh Wherever Located.

Mr. D. N. Spencer, 11 Coolmine avenue, Toronto, writes: "I have been troubled with catarrh and deafness for a number of years, finally I could not converse with any person at any distance. I spent much money on advertised remedies, and doctored with specialists in Toronto and Winnipeg (while there three years ago), but my hearing became no better. About a year ago I procured a sample of Japanese Catarrh Cure, and afterwards followed up this treatment as directed, and shortly I found my hearing completely returned, and my catarrh does not trouble me now in the least. I can converse with anyone, and I can hear Japanese Catarrh Cure is a volatile pomade that reaches, soothes, and heals every catarrh diseased portion of the 'mucous membrane.' A free sample and book on catarrh and deafness mailed free. Inclosure, five-cent stamp. Address: The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., Limited, Toronto. Sold by Anderson & Nelles, Druggists, 50 cents, 6 for $2.50, or mailed on receipt of price."

Queen Victoria, it is related, adheres to the dinner table custom of her grandmothers and preserves the rule which originated in the time of George II. As each dish is placed upon the table the name of the cook who prepared it is announced.

Why will you allow a cough to lace-rate your throat or lungs? Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the pain can be allayed and the danger avoided? This Syrup is pleasant to the taste, and unsurpassed for relieving, healing and curing the affections of the throat and lungs, coughs, colds, etc.

A Scranton (Pa.) court is asked to grant the claim of one Isaac Sidebottom against the estate of John Shaffer for "entertaining" an old man playing checkers during a great part of three years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
Has been used for over FIFTY YEARS by MILLIONS of MOTHERS for their CHILDREN'S COLIC, CRUTCHES, STOMACH TROUBLE, SUCCESS, IT SOOTHES THE CHILD, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALLAYS ALL PAIN; CURES WIND COLIC, and is the BEST REMEDY DIARRHEA. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

There are eight inches more rainfall annually on the south shore of Lake Superior than on the north shore, and three inches more in the cases of Erie and Ontario.

FAGGED OUT.—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength has gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel that there was nothing to live for. However, is a cure—a box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills.

SERMON AND SONG

Listened to With Evident Interest by the Prisoners.

How the inmates of the County Jail Attend Divine Service—On the Day of Worship Their Spiritual Needs Are Not Forgotten.

When the Sabbath day comes round each week, bringing with it its abundant opportunities for all to hear told the old, old story of the Gospel, there is one handful of men among London's thousands to whom very few give a thought, or wonder if they too should not share in the healing of the message of salvation. They are the unfortunate few who, either through crime or mistake—most often their own, but sometimes that of others—are shut away from the society of their fellow beings. Yet these men, debased as they are from witnessing and participation in the doings of daily life, are not wholly forgotten on the Sabbath, nor denied the consolation that religious ministrations can bring to even the most degraded and fallen of mankind. The city ministers of the Gospel take turns in devoting a Sabbath afternoon to the carrying of the message of love and forgiveness to these unfortunates, and a little band of earnest girls are present at the services to lead in the singing of the familiar Gospel hymns.

The place selected for the service is the wide corridor, extending from the front to the rear of the jail, and which is divided into three compartments by bars erected from floor to ceiling. The prisoners, who are congregated along the south side of the corridor, the preacher and the volunteer choir opposite them, and between preacher and audience is the railing surrounding the stage, facing the singing girls.

A desk fixed to the railing serves the preacher for pulpit, and a small melodeon furnishes accompaniment for the singing. The prisoners file up one by one from their quarters on the lower floor, and range themselves on their bench. Some are in the parti-colored garments prescribed for wear for the convicted inmates, while others are in their ordinary dress, being those who are awaiting trial. When all are seated, a hymn is announced, one of the singers seats herself at the melodeon, and all stand up. The fresh voices of the girls singers rise in a Gospel strain:

"Oh, to be nothing, nothing, Only to lie at his feet." and the rough, unaccustomed voices of the prisoners are heard humming the tune and singing a word here and there of the antiphonal hymn. The singing concluded, the preacher makes a short and simple prayer, in which he entreates for all present the blessing of the pitying Father who looks into all hearts, and temptations that influence the lives of human beings, the Father who loves the sinner while he hates the sin. Then follows the reading of a Scripture lesson, the chapter of the first epistle to the Corinthians. The prisoners join more heartily in the singing of the next hymn, "Come to the Savior, make no delay."

It being evidently more familiar, the prisoners take the text from Genesis vii, 1: "Come thou and all thy house into the ark," and from this he draws a parallel between God's means of physical salvation for the antediluvian human race and the spiritual salvation free to all today. A short and simple sermon it is, pointing them to the means of salvation and entreating them to surrender their lives to the guidance of a higher power.

The blank, whitewashed walls of the corridor, the barred gratings at either end, the black garb of the preacher, the gray and yellow garments of the prisoners and the bright faces and tasteful attire of the girls singers, all go to make up a striking picture. The demeanor of the prisoners during the preaching differs greatly. Some listen with respectful attention, watching the face of the speaker; a couple of others bow their heads as if laboring under conviction, and their faces show that they are realizing the truth of the words being spoken. Some are restless and inattentive, while still others, of the dark-faced Indian race, sit in indolent and apathetic listlessness, only taking an interest in the sermon when the singing is in progress. The sermon finished, the closing hymn is sung. It being another familiar one,

"I am thine, O Lord," the prisoners join in heartily. Then the benediction is pronounced, and the service is over for another week. Preacher, choir and auditors go their different ways, the latter back to the monotony of their life in duration, and the former out into the brightness and sunshine of the spring afternoon. And so ends the service. But who can tell whether or not the seed, falling apparently amid rocks and thorns, may lie unperceived and in vain, or may bring forth even an hundred fold.

The Late Henry O'Neill

Another of the pioneers of London township, in the person of Mr. Henry O'Neill, of lot 21, con. 15, passed away to join the silent majority on Friday, May 11, having attained the ripe old age of 77 years. In him the country loses one of its landmarks, for, born on lot 21, con. 14, he worked at home until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and could recall many interesting reminiscences of the early days of the country. His wife predeceased him by five years and he seemed to feel her loss keenly that since that time he has had but poor health. Deceased was a Conservative, and in religion a consistent member of the Methodist Church. In all church affairs he was an active worker, and a cheerful giver to all worthy objects. The funeral, on Sunday, from his late residence was very largely attended. It was held under Masonic auspices, and conducted by Irving Lodge, A. F. and M. until he reached the age of 21 years. He then bought the adjoining farm, which was at that time covered with forest, and proceeded to clear the land and make a home for himself. Not minding his old age he possessed a very retentive memory, and