A Brilliant Scene in the Throne Hall The Coronation Ceremonial for Sunday.

Rome, Aug. 6.—During one full hour this morning the bells of about 500 churches were rung in honor of the election of Pius X., a welcome unique of its kind and ordered by Cardinal Respighi, Vicar of Rome, who issued special instructions therefor. All the churches celebrated mass for event, the intoning of the cremus combining with the barmony. The bel!will-an Edinburgh merchant ringing served a purpose, that of heralding the great ceremony of the rethe reality of matter, or the origin of ception of the diplomatic body accredited to the holy see.
