Death of Michael O'Meara.
A figure familiar to many Stratford people has disappeared through the death on Sunday of Michael O'Meara, of that city, aged almost 77 years. Deceased was born in Ireland, and came to this country with his father when 17 years of age, settling first in Ingersoll, where he worked at the trade of making shoes. After some time he moved to a farm in West Zorra, at Fairview, and about 30 years ago he moved into this city, where he became well known to many of the residents. For many years he has conducted a shoe shop at the corner of Erie and St. David streets. He is survived by Stratford. They are: Mrs. Charles six children, three of whom reside in Frederick, British Columbia; Mrs. Dan Lynch and Mr. Anthony O'Meara, Cape, Mich.; Mrs. N. McQuade, Messrs. Daniel and Michael O'Meara, Stratford. His wife predeceased him about seven years. He is also survived by three sisters: Mrs. Edward Whalen, Stratford; Mrs. Patrick Sherlock, London, and Mrs. D. Sherlock, Gladwin, Mich.

Mr. Wright Appeals St. Thomas Case

The troubles of Mr. B. G. H. Wright, of the Wright Hat Company, of this city, seem to be increasing in St. Thomas. Some time ago Mr. Wright opened a millinery store in that city. Shortly afterwards he was summoned to the police court by Inspector Shaw under a trading traders' bylaw. He was given time to take out a license, and, failing to do so, he was fined $25 and costs.
A few days later he discharged one of his lady employees, and there was considerable disturbance over the matter, and he was threatened with a suit for damages.
Since his conviction on the charge of violating the transient traders' bylaw, Mr. Wright has resorted to a series of placards in his window, in which he has freely expressed his mind regarding other merchants in the city, as well as the authorities who have been guilty of persecuting him, if his side of the argument is to be believed.

Aroused His Ire.
The last placard in the series has raised the ire of Inspector Shaw. It declared, it is alleged, that the evidence of Mr. Shaw, given at the time of the trial, under oath, was not true, and it could be proved untrue.
Inspector Shaw took exception to that statement, and instructed his solicitor, Mr. W. K. Cameron, to issue a writ against Mr. Wright, claiming unpaid damages for libel.
The case is exciting not a little interest in the Railroad City, as the affair has run over a considerable period of time, and much controversy has been had on the merits of it.
Mr. Wright has appealed against his fine imposed upon him by the police magistrate.

Londoner Fined $25 in St. Thomas

St. Thomas Times: George Walsh, the London young man charged with assaulting Constable Flaxen at the Granite Roller Rink on Thanksgiving Day, was before Magistrate Glenn for sentence yesterday. T. W. Crothers, barrister, appeared on Walsh's behalf and presented a petition for leniency, signed by Mayor Judd, Ald. Steveland, Rev. J. Rollins and other prominent Londoners. The petition referred to Walsh's previous good record. The magistrate imposed a fine of $25, with-out costs, which was paid.
Constable Flaxen has also laid in-

Land for the Tents Is What Is Needed

A lady who is greatly interested in the tubercular poor stated to The Advertiser this morning that there has been for some time sufficient funds in the treasurer's hands to purchase one or two tents. What is at present required is a suitable site upon which to erect shacks or tents, an administrative building with comfortable quarters, for a nurse, and an abundant supply of nourishing food. The reasons for delay are too well known to the public to admit of discussion. When, in March last, the petition was circulated and signed by hundreds of citizens and ratepayers, many fraternal societies expressed themselves pleased with the movement, and willing to assist in the maintenance of invalid members.
The committee who have charge of this work are doing what they can to relieve suffering in the homes until such time as they may proceed constitutionally and legally to the consent of the city. This statement is made as some are asking why this delay?

ON LEAVING FOR LONDON

Ivan Friends Kindly Remember Mr. and Mrs. Hector McIntyre.

On Monday evening last a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hector McIntyre, in Ivan, to spend a pleasant evening with them previous to their departure for this city. The evening was enlivened with music, speeches and songs, and Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre were made the recipients of some valuable presents.
At a timely pause in the proceedings a very kindly worded address was read to Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre, in which their friends expressed their deep regret at losing the companionship of the worthy couple, at the same time voicing their sentiments of affectionate good will, and sincere wishes for their future happiness and mick's.
