Fenton Shows Attack Was Made Without Foundation —Is Surprised at Tactics.

Special to The Advertiser by a Staff Correspondent.

Ingersoll, Oct. 22 .- The South Oxford nomination meeting held at Ingersoll this afternoon produced one of the most amazing situations in the political history of South Oxford, when the sitting member, Donald Sutherland, accused C. H. Denton of Tillsonburg, the returning officer, of allowing registrars to pad the lists with illegal names by his consent. The accusation came at the end of a speech by Mr. Sutherland, where con-siderable heckling was present, which seemed to make the speaker very Capt. A. H. Clews, commander of the C. P. R. liner Melita, who was shot and killed in his cabin at Ant-werp this week. Chief Officer Towers nervous, but the accusation was promptly met by Mr. Denton.
Mr. Denton went to the platforn and declared that he was surprised der. that Mr. Sutherland would stoop to such low tactics in an effort to win an election, and proved that the whol accusation was mere political proaganda. Mr. Sutherland in his speech also stated that a certain registrar's office was closed nine hours before the time subscribed by the act. Mr. Denton ably proved that the said office remained open for three hours past the allotted time. Mr. Denton has filled public offices for several years with the utmos confidence of his electors, and the attack upon him is resented Mr. Sutherland tried to apologize after the meeting, realizing the bad mistake he had made, but matters are not likely to rest at this point
