Mrs. Charles Lee and Mrs. A. Belanger of Campbellton, and Mrs. Arthur Arsenault of Tracadie, came here last week to attend the shower that was given in honor of their sister, Miss J. Gertrude Letourneau, on the occasion of her approaching marriage to Mr. Joseph Ed. Elisger. The ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. Ed. Litalien and over fifty friends attended. The future bride, who is one of Dalhousie's popular girls, was the recipient of a large number of gifts, consisting of linen, china, etc.

The Halifax papers report that Mrs. W. K. McKean, formerly Miss Lena Barberie of Dalhousie, gave a dance recently in the Waegwolt Club for her two young daughters, the Misses Amy and Mollie McKean, then home from Netherwood, Rothesay, N. B. The Clug was fairly overflowed with young life and the girls, who are great favorites, and in their evening gowns and the delightful "setting" which their party furnished, looked very lovely, assisting their mother in doing the honors with ingenuous and easy grace.

The deepest sympathy of this community goes out to Mrs. Andrew Barberie, of Dalhousie, on the death of her estimable sister, Miss Sydney Doyle, which occurred at the Hotel Dieu Hospital in Campbellton on Sunday last.
