SCHOOL CLOSING NEXT WEDNESDAY

Pupils of Grade Ten Will Tender
Graduating Class a Reception
in the Evening

The public school closing will take place next Wednesday, June 30th, when the usual exercises will be gone through, after which the pupils and friends will gather in the Assembly Hall where a program will be given, interspersed with speeches.

In the evening the pupils of Grade X will entertain the graduating class of 1915 at a reception to be given in the Assembly Hall of the school. A very interesting entertainment is promised and an unusually good program of music, readings, etc., has been prepared.

To this reception a most cordial invitation is extended to all past graduates of the school to be present. Invitations will also be sent to parents and friends of pupils.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM THE FRONT

Campbellton Boy Crawls Along Ground and Gets the Range of German Guns

We have been requested to publish the following letter from Oliver Dewar, which will be found most interesting to Campbellton people.

Ten miles from Nowhere,
June 3rd, 1915.

My Dear Mother:
I still receive letters from you and father and I love to hear from home, I have only received one Graphic since I left England, hope to get the others later, I miss them very much. I see that a good number from Campbellton are coming with the Third Contingent. I have never heard, but I expect the 26th Battalion has left long ago. The C'ton. boys of the 12th are badly scattered, Jim Fraser, Louis Gagne and Ernest Gynard are the only ones with me. I see the others sometimes. Leslie has been quite near me all the time, but I have not seen him for two weeks, we never seem to be out of the trenches at the same time.

We got back from the trenches this morning, had a long march, got here both tired and hungry. They had four or five big cans of hot tea waiting for us and all the bread, butter and cold bacon we could eat, think you can guess how much of it I did eat. I had not shaved, washed my face or had my boots off for ten days, glad you did not see what I looked like. Talk about shaving and cleaning up today, we all had a shower bath and a change of clothes from the skin out. I guess it feels some better.

Jim Fraser has turned out to be a very brave boy. If he had been killed or badly wounded there would have been very much about it, but as he is well and feeling fine, so very few will hear what he has done. But I would like you to tell some of his friends in Campbellton that I am proud of him, and I know they would be if they knew that he went with another fellow a few feet from the German trench and found out where they were and what they were doing. We were in our front line, the Germans were in a low place and although we heard them putting up barb wire entanglement we could not tell just where they were, our officer asked for two volunteers, and J. B. Fraser was the first to say he would go and find out. The German big guns were shelling all the time, besides there were lots of them with rifles watching for us to make a move, but it was dark, so Jim and his chum got very near to them, they pulled themselves along the ground and the grass was long and there was lots of old buildings to get the range by, and when they had found out just where they were they came back and told the officer, he sent word to our artillery and in a few minutes there were no Germans there, think some of them were in a warmer place than France, and that is warm enough just now.

We may be here for a few days, and if the other battalions come out I hope to see Leslie and the other Campbellton boys. We are not having a bad time here, but I don't care how soon this war is over and we get back home again. They are feeding us and using as much better in every way than they did on Salisbury Plain last fall.

Apart from the War I don't like France or Belgium so well as England, don't think you would like it, it is good farming country but the ground is low and the air close.

While I was in England I saw some nice cities and I got acquainted with some nice people, but I still say as I said before that there is no place that I have seen better than Canada, that Canadian girls are second to none and there is no place like home, would like to shove my legs under our table to-night and holler, Mother bring me more tea. With best love to all, I am,
Your loving son,
OLIVER DEWAR.

We have also received an interesting letter and enclosure giving full details of the work of the Canadian troops. This letter from Q. M. Sergeant R. S. Young of Shigawake now serving with the 3rd Brigade Grenade Coy.

Somewhere in France,
June 5th, 1915.

Dear Sir:
As an old Shigawake, P. Q., boy and a keen reader of your valuable paper, it is with great pleasure I enclose this leaflet containing the official version of the Canadians great fight. Our company of about 100 men, (3rd Grenade Coy.) and No. 3 Company Canadian Engineers, were the first to be attacked by the Germans on that memorable Thursday afternoon, and we in all about 250 men by over an hour's rapid fire from behind a ledge, forced the Germans to halt and dig themselves in, and held them there till reinforcements in the shape of the Royal Montreal Regt. (14th Batt.) arrived. Our orders were "hold the ledge at all costs" and I don't think a single man ever expected to get out alive. I shall never forget the charge at night and the awful nightmare of the following week, we lost all count of days and nights. I'll drop you a line later on if you like, with a few personal experiences which may be of interest to you. But I can tell you candidly Hell was a pink tea to that. With all good wishes. One who was through it.
R. S. Young.

DICKIE-CALDWELL
New Carlisle, June 23—A very pretty wedding took place here yesterday, when Miss Rose M. Caldwell of this place was united in marriage to Mr. Ernie J. Dickie of Campbellton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Buckland. The church, which was very prettily decorated with potted plants and cut flowers, was crowded by friends of the young couple. The bride was assisted by Belle Caldwell, supported by Dickie.

The bride was handsome tokens

STUDEBAKER FOUR

Is more popular this year than ever before, and last year they gave excellent satisfaction.

Read what one of our customers has to say of his last year's car.

E. A. LeGallais,
Manager of the Lounsbury Co., Ltd.
Campbellton, N. B.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Jas. Loudon has just completed overhauling my Studebaker Four, Model 1914 and reports that he found all parts in first class condition, that the gears show no signs whatever of any wear and are apparently in as good condition as when first put in, outside of tires this car cost me nothing for repairs during the season of 1914, although it covered about six thousand miles.
