THE NEW DEPARTURE

Walker Leads You.

"Oh, come into the garden, Maud,"
The fresh young man invites
But, clever girl, she says "Oh, Claude
The mapping beetle bites;
And I have better things to do
Than idly thus to roam;
If I am soon to marry you
I'll have to make a home."

"But we've so little money, dear,
Housekeeping frights a man."
"Not now—" For Walker kills that fear
By his instalment plan.
I know just how I must proceed,
We've done this oft before;
My mother finds all that we need
In this well-furnished store.

"You get the house or modest flat—
Even rooms—whate'er you will;
The rest—well, I'll attend to that,
I'm not scared at the bill.
Your earnings, though however small,
I'll manage with and buy
The prettiest furnishings and all
That can delight the eye.

"First carpets, gold with bud, and vine,
And curtains, pictures, chairs.
The furniture will seem so fine
Our folks will turn out theirs.
With painted dishes, such a house
And folding beds, a stove—
A parlor suite, the best—To board
You'll never wish, nor rove."

Who could neglect such a pleasant home as this charming young woman proposes? Who would not at once see the policy and economy in the weekly payment plan, whereby you can save money and live in luxury by going to

WALKER'S
WEEKLY PAYMENT STORE,
107½ QUEEN-STREET WEST.

P.S.—Walker is lower than any dealer, with more style. For goodness' sake don't delay, Go and see him and be happy.

Rathnelly Estate!

THIS BEAUTIFUL PROPERTY,

LATELY OCCUPIED BY THE HON. SENATOR McMASTER,

Situate North of the Davenport-road, extends from Avenue-road on the East to the Poplar Plains Road on the West.

THE RATHNELLY ESTATE

Comprises over 40 acres, which has been subdivided so as to offer the choicest building sites for residences in the most desirable and most convenient location yet presented to the public.

AVENUE ROAD is the continuation of the Queen-street Avenue, and extends from the Queen's Park past this estate. It is the newest, handsomest, and the best built residence street in the city. A Sewer has been made and block pavement laid along a great portion of the street, and the necessary steps are being taken for the extension of these improvements past the estate. Gas and city water have already been carried to the northern portion of the property.

POPLAR PLAINS ROAD is a most charming drive as it winds along the westerly limits of this estate.

The whole property lies some distance to the east of Toronto Annex. It is near to Yonge-street with all its business advantages. It is within a few minutes' walk of the Street Railway. The North Toronto Station of the Canadian Pacific Railway affords easy access to the city, as well as to all parts of the Province. Churches and Schools are also within a few minutes' walk.

It is intended to allow only such buildings to be erected as will be in keeping with the respectability of the locality.

The advantages which this property already possesses over other and more distant parts of the city, as well as over much that is offered for sale as outside property, marks its intrinsic value as distinguished from property of a "speculative" character, while the rapid growth of the city, and especially in the neighborhood of this estate, plainly indicates the certain increase in value which purchasers may realize in the near future.

The Title is perfect and is on the "Torrens" system, which secures absolute security as well as facility of transfer. Prices Low. Terms Liberal. In single lots, or in large blocks.
