son, that the battle royal was won. Half a mile off, where had been the thick of the fight, lay motionless on the track the corpse of his for to the death, High Tariff. Tom Kiley, the gallant beast's rider, twice a Derby victor on gallant beast's rider, twice a maked the that very course, had this time pushed the limit of equine endurance. There was a sudden plunge upward, a queer stagger of 20 yards and High Tariff sunk down into the Goldingham.

On eastern tracks Pessara and Snowball were no less notable. Ludowic was looked upon by the Californians, who were supposedly best able to judge him, as almost certain to prove a surprise, while Strathmeath, regarded as the all-round best of last year's 2-year-olds, had all-round best of last year's 2-year-olds, had heavy regestrad all the present season solely been reserved all the present season solely for this race.

"Snapper" Garrison, Taral, Covington and Fitzpatrick—probably four as crack jockeys as almost any equal number now on the turf, had been brought specially from New York for the race, and it was current New York for the race, and it was current that Garrison's pet ambition was to gossip that Garrison's pet ambition was to

New York for the race, and it was current gossip that Garrison's pet ambition was to ride and American Derby winner. Tom Kiley, too, the winning jockey of the two latest of the greatest Chicago contests was to have a mount, and with it a chance, if successful, to equal the record here of the ideal Isaac Murphy.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Death to one horse, $19,000 to another. That was the American Derby of '91. A scarlet flash on the horizon, half a hundred thousand people breath less, the gleam of white beneath a wire, and the richest stake race ever run in the West was larger end.

It was by Strathmeath, New York's favorite son, that the battle royal was won. Half a mile

By a Toronto Eleven.

Hamilton was beaten by Toronto yesterday on the Bloor-street grounds, as everyone expected. Bob Fer rie was the only visitor to do anything in the hatting line in the first inning, and with Toronto's loss fielding made 29 of their 68 runs. Tive of Toronto's batsmen got into doubles and totalled 89. Hamilton did better in their second venture, but as Toronto had not time to bat the match was decided on the first inning. Several Hamilton cracks, including Alexander Gillespie, were absent, but tits will not explain defeat, as Dyce Saunders et al. were off Toronto's list:
