CHILDHOOD AILMENTS.

As a remedy for all the ills of childhood arising from derangements of the stom-ach or bowels Baby's Own Tablets have ach or bowels haby's Own Tablets have no equal. You do not have to coax or threaten your little ones to take them—children like them. The ease with which they can be given as compared with liquid medicines will appeal to every mother. None is spilled or wasted—you know just how big a dose has reached the little stomach. And above all mothers have an absolute grantee that the Tablets. stonach. And above all mothers have an absolute guarantee that the Tablets contain no opiate or poisonous soothing stuff. They always do good, they cannot possibly do harm. Mrs. Edward Donovan, St. Agatha, Que., says:—'I am delighted with Baby's Own Tablets. I know of no medicine that can equal them in curing the ills of young children.'' You can get the Tablets from any druggist or by mail at 25 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE BOGUS CHEQUE CASE.

New Trial Ordered on Appeal to Divisional Court.

Toronto, Jan. 19.—Before Chief Justice Mulock, Justices Teetzel and Anglin.—
Taylor vs. Greenizen.—R. McKay, for defendant, appealed from judgment of the 8th Division Court in the county of Lambton, dated 6th November, 1906, in favor of plaintiff in an action on a cheque as endorser thereof. Defendant in the course of a certain pretended transaction received a cheque for $185 purporting to come from one George Brent, of Warwick, on behalf of one A. B. Clark. The cheque was on the Merchants' Bank, Watford deted 5th April 1006 drawn in cheque was on the Merchants' Bank, Watford, dated 5th April, 1906, drawn in favor of Brent on the Merchants' Bank at Watford. Defendant endorsed the cheque and gave it to the man who called himself A. B. Clark, who on 6th April, took the cheque into the Bank of Toronto at Petrolea and got it cashed. Upon presentation at the Merchants' Bank in Watford the cheque was returned "no funds." The plaintiff, who was the accountant and acting manager in the Bank of Toronto, at Petrolea, took up the contant and acting manager in the Bank of Toronto, at Petrolea, took up the cheque from the bank for the value there-of. Judgment was given for plaintiff for $e85 and costs. The defendant was swindled by a sharper, but plaintiff was also a victim. For an account of the matter sec. 26, C.L.T. 445. Grayson Smith, for plaintiff, opposed appeal, Appeal allowed and new trial ordered. Costs of new trial to be costs in the cause to plaintiff in any event. tiff in any event.

Cnildren's Aid Society.

The annual meeting of the above society was held at Sarnia on Friday evening. The society is accomplishing much good and desires the hearty support of all interested in bettering the condition of homeless children. Every boy and girl saved from evil surroundings and transplanted into some good home is a valuable asset for the country. Believing that it is only necessary to make this work known to secure the needed support from the town council, the county council and by subscriptions and donations of philanthropic and christian people, the work is being undertaken.

Mr. Wilkinson will be glad to have reported to him from any part of the town The annual meeting of the above so-

Mr. Wilkinson will be glad to have reported to him from any part of the town or county the case of any boy or girl who should be looked after, and as soon as possible he will make inquiry and seek to apply a remedy. If you have any good reason to believe that any child in your locality is neglected, dependent or ill-treated, do not delay, but call the attention of the agent to the fact at once. Your letter will be considered strictly priwate. He will also be glad to receive any sum for the treasurer, H. Ingram and will give acknowledgment for same. Gifts of clothing and shoes for children will be thankfully received.

A number of applications are registered for girls. We would be glad to know of any available homes for little boys. At present there is in the shelter one boy of eight years awaiting a home. Address:

RETURN GAME WITH STRATH-ROY.

The Watford junior hockey team jour-neyed to Strathroy Tuesday evening to play the return game with the club of neyed to Strathroy Tuesday evening to play the return game with the club of that town. There was a marked improvement noticeable in the playing of both teams, more attention being given to combination playing. Considerable trouble was experienced with the electric light and the ice surface was limited owing to a portion of the rink being devoted to curling. A number of the local admirers of the game accompanied the team to Strathroy. Mr. Harrison, of Strathroy, made an impartial referee and none of the players were penalized. The final score was 5-1 in favor of Watford, the halt time score being 3-1. The lineup was as follows:

HOCKEY.

The first hockey match of the season was played on local ice Thursday evening between the Watford Juniors and the Strathroy team. A good crowd witnessed the game. The referee was inclined to be lenient, and the playing was somewhat loose in consequence. Both teams paid too much to individual plays, but, will probably improve as the season advances. For the first game it was all that could be expected. The final score was 5-3 in tavor of the home team:

MASONIC FUNCTION.

On Tuesday evening District Deputy G. M., S. McWhorter, of Petrolea, paid his first official visit to Havelock Lodge No. 238, A. F. & A. M. The work of the second degree was exemplified in a manner that elicited the commendation of the visitors. After the business of the lodge was disposed of the brethren adjourned from labor to refreshment. A banquet followed at the Roche House, and the hostess received many compliments on the magnificent spread provided for the occasion.

After doing justice to the varied and attractive bill of fare, Wor. Bro. Dr. Kenward called the brethren to order Kenward called the brethren to order and an informal toast list was submitted. "The King." Responded to by singing the National Anthem.

"The Grand Lodge of Canada." Responded to by R. Wor. Bro. S. McWorter, D.D.G.M., St. Clair District. Bro. McWhorter gave an interesting summary of the progress of Masonry. The Grand Lodge has now a membership of 37,628; assets of $111,854, and during the past five years had paid out $75,000 for benevolent purposes. He urged the brethren to be more regular in their attendance at lodge meetings and thus assist the officers in their work of spreading the grand principles of the craft.

"The District." Responded by the Right Wor. Bro. Dr. Newell. Dr. Newell was present when the district was formed
