Monitor Attechin

SALUS POPULI SUPREMA LEX EST.

VOL. 32.

BRIDGETOWN, ANNAPOLIS COUNTY, NOVA SCOTIA.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1904.

NO. 34

Professional Cards J. M. OWEN,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR AND NOTARY PUBLIC. Office in Annapolis opposite Garrison gate -WILL BE AT HIS-OFFICE IN MIDDLETON

Every Thursday.

Reliable Fire and Life Ins. Co.'s.

BARRISTER,

(RANDOLPH S BLOCK.)

Real Estate.

O. S. MILLER, Barrister, &c.

was to be aspanted. That was the end of the "old days" of Plattville.

But the man who had laid the foundation upon which the new Plattville was to be built, he who through the Real Estate Agent, etc. SHAFNER BUILDING, Prompt and satisfactory attention given to the collection of claims, and all other professional business.

DR. F. S. ANDERSON Crown and Bridge Work a specialty. Office nezt door to Union Bank. Hours: 9 to 5.

James Primrose, D. D. S.,

Bridgetown, Sept. 23rd, 1891.

J. B. WHITMAN.

Land Surveyor. ROUND HILL, N. S.

Leslie R. Fairn, ARCHITECT. Present P. O. address-

AYLESFORD, N S

WM. ROBERTSON, President.
WM. ROCHE, M. P., Vice-President.
C. C. BLACKADAR, GEO. MITCHELL, M. P. P.
E. G. SMITH, A. E. JONES,
GEORGE STAIRS.

Head Office: Halifax. N. S.

E. L. THORNE, General Manager, C. N. S. Strickland, Asst. Gen. Mgr. you have for several days."

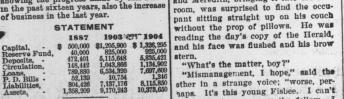

"It's that beast McCune. This young W. C. Harvey, - - Inspector. Fisbee is rather queer about it. I felt stirred up as I went along." But even before the sentence was finished the Annapolis, Arichat, Baddeck, Barrington Passage, Bear River, Berwick, Bridgetown, Clarke's Harbor, Dartmeuth, Digby, Glace Bay, Granville Ferry, Halifax, Inverness, Kentville, Lawrence town, Liverpool, Lockeport, Mabou, Middleton, New Glasgow, North Sydney, Parraboro, Sherbedke, Snripshill. Sydney Mines Mines Street Stripshills Sydney Mines Mines Stripshills Sydney Sydney Sydney Mines Stripshills Sydney Sydney Sydney Mines Sydney Sydney Sydney Mines Sydney Mines Sydney Sydney Sydney Sydney Mines Sydney Sydney Sydney Sydney Sydney Mines Sydney Sydn brooke, Springhill, Sydney, Sydney Mines, St.

Peter's, Truro, Windsor, Wolfville, Yarmouth.
Port of Spain, Trinidad; St. John, N. B.

"I—I'm giving you a jolly summer,
Tom." he said, with a quivering effort

CORRESPONDENTS: Bank of Toronto and Branches, Canada. National Bank of Commerce, New York. Serchants' National Bank, Boston. London and Westminster Bank, London, England.

Special attention is directed to the COMPARATIVE STATEMENT below, showing the progress made by this Bank in the past sixteen years, also the increase of hysiness in the last way.

SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT.

Interest allowed at highest current rate in Savings Bank Deposits and on Deposit accepts, compounded helf-vearly.

Taps. Its this young Fisuce. I can't think what's come over the fellow. I thought he was a treasure beyond dreams, and he's turning out bad. I'll awear it looks like they'd been—well, I won't say that yet, but he hasn't print-td that McCune business I told you of, and he's had two days. There is less than a week before the convention, and"— He broke off, seeing the yellow envelope in Meredith's hand. "Is that The Gentleman a telegram for the? His companion gave it to him. He tore it open and read the contents. They were brief and unhappy. From Indiana

(Continued.)

CHAPTER XII.

quiet labor of years had stamped his spirit on the people, lay sick in his friend's house and did not care.

By BOOTH TARKINGTON Can't you do something? Can't you come down? It begins to look the other M. H. "Tom, give me that pad and pencil," Copyright, 1902, by McGlure, Philips & Co. said the sick man. He rapidly dashed off a nete to H. Fishee.

Said the sick man. He rapidly dashed off a nete to H. Fisbee.

Sept. 5. ——
Sept. 6. ——
Sep Indiana town may lie asleep a long while, but it always wakes up some time, and Plattville woke up in August, when the Herald became a daily. vas then that history began to had made a connection with the Assehad made a connection with the Asso-clated Press, and it was sold every morning at stands in every town in that section of the state. Its circula-tion tripled. Two new men were brought from Bouen for the editorial and reportorial staff, and Parker talked of new presses. During the first week of the daily venture Eph Watts struck oil, and the Herald boomed the field. People swarmed into town; the hotel was crowded; strangers became no sen-sation whatever. A capitalist bought print the facts concerning McCune in to-morrow morning's paper.

I am well aware of the obligations un-der which your extreme efficiency and your thoughtfulness in many matters have placed me. It is to you I owe my unearned profits from the transaction in oil, and it is to you I owe the Herald's extraordinary present circulation, growth of power and influence. That power is still under my direction and is an added responsibility which shall not be misap-plied. sation whatever. A capitalist bought the whole north side of the square to erect new stores, and the Carlow bank responsibility which shall not be all supplied.

Are you sorry for McCune? I warned him long ago that the papers you hold would be published if he ever tried to return to political life, and he is deliberately counting on my physical weakness and absence. Let him rely upon it—I am not se weak as he thinks. I am sorry for him from the bottom of my heart, but the Herald is not.

Tou need not reply by letter. Tomorrow's issue answers for you. Until I have received a copy I withhold my judgment.

JOHN HARKLESS.

Tom Meredith had taken him from Tomorrow's issue—that fateful print on which depended John Harkless' epinion of H. Fishee's integrity—contained an editorial addressed to the delegates of the convention, warning them to act for the vital interest of the community and declaring that the opportunity to be given them in the present convention was a rare one, a singular piece of good fortune indeed. They were to have a chance to vote for a man who had won the love and re-spect of every person in the district-one who had suffered for his championplace. Fisbee had found a young relative to run the Herald, who signed his typewritten business letters "H. Fisone who had sunered for his champions ship of righteousness; one whom even his few political enemies confessed they held in personal affection and esteem; one who had been the inspiration of a new era; one whose life had been helpfulness, whose hand had reached out to every struggler and unfortunate; a man who had met and faced danger for the sake of others; one who lived under a threat for years, and who had been almost overborne in the fulfillment of that threat, but who would live to tribute the convention would bring him as a gift from a community that loved him. His name needed not to be told.

It was on every lip that morning and in every heart.

Tom was eagerly watching his companion as he read. Harkless fell back on the pillows with a drawn face, and a little meney he had saved. He let for a moment he laid his thin hand Meredith arrange it for him, and a few days later the stock leaped cloudward. over his eyes in a gesture of intense However, his modest riches interest-

"What is it?" Meredith said quickly. "Give me the pad, please." "What is it, boy?"

The other's teeth snapped together.
"What is it?" he cried. "What is it?
It's treachery, and the worst I ever knew. Not a word of the accusation I demanded—lying praises instead! Read that editorial-there, there!" He struck the page with the back of his hand and threw the paper to Meredith. that miserable lie! 'One who has won the love and respect of every person in the district!' 'One who has suffered for his championship of righteousness! Righteousness! Save the mark!"

"What does it mean?"
"Mean! It means McCune, Rod McCune, 'who has lived under a threat

"What is it?" he cried. print him out of Indiana if he even raised his head again, and he knew l could. 'Almost overborne in the ful-fillment of that threat'—almost! It's a black scheme, and I see it now. This man came to Plattville and went on the Herald for nothing in the world but 25c., 50c., $1.00.

All druggists, for Lowell, Man Weak Lungs

daren't name him even new, the cow-ard! The trick lies between McCune and young Fishee-the old man is inn cent. Give me the pad. Not almost overborne. There are three good lays work in, and if Rod McCune see ongress it will be in his next incarna-

He rapidly scribbled a few lines of the pad and threw the sheets to Mere dith. "Get those telegrams to the West-ern Union office in a rush, please. Read With wide eyes Tom read them. One was to Warren Smith:

Take possession Herald. This is your authority. Publish McCune papers, so labeled, which H. Fishee will hand you. Beat McCune. JOHN HARKLESS. The second was addressed to H. Fis-

You are relieved from the cares of editorship. You will turn over the management of the Herald to Warren Smith. You will give him the McCune papers. If you do not or if you destroy them you cannot hide where I shall not find you.

JOHN HARKLESS. ERY early in the merning a messenger boy stumbled up the front steps of Mere-dith's house and handed the colored sesvant four yellow envelopes, night messages. The man carried them upstairs, left three with his master's guest, then knocked on Meredith's door till a response as-sured him that the occupant was awake and slid the fourth envelope under the door. Meredith lay quite without motion for several minutes, sleepily watching the yellow rhomboid in the crevice. It was a hateful looking thing to mix itself in with a pleasant dream and insist on being read, but after a while he climbed groaningly out of bed and perused the message with heavy eyes, still half asleep. He read it twice before it penetrated. Suppress all newspapers today. Convention meets at 11. If we succeed, a delegation will come to Rouen this afternoon. They will come.

Tom rubbed his sticky eyelids and shook his head violently in a Spartan effort to rouse himself, but what more effectively performed the task for him were certain sounds that issued from Harkless' room across the hall. For some minutes Meredith had been dully conscious of a rustle and stir in the invalid's chamber, and he began to realize that no mere tossing upon a bed would account for a noise that reached him across a wide hall and through two closed doors of thick wal-aut. Suddenly he heard a quick, heavy tread, shod, in Harkless' room, and a resounding bang as some heavy object struck the floor. The doctor was not to come till evening. The servant had gone downstairs. Who in the sick man's room wore shoes? He rushed across the hall in his pajamas and threw open the unlocked door.

The bed was disarranged and vacant Harkless, fully dressed, was standing in the middle of the floor hurling garments at a small trunk. The horrified Meredith stood for a sec-with both hands.

"Mad, by heaven! Mad!"
"Let go of me, Tom!"
"Lunatic! Lunatic!" "Don't stop me one instant!" Meredith tried to force him toward the bed. "No; get back to bed. You're delirious, boy!"
"Delirious nothing! I'm a well

'Go to bed! Go to bed!" Harkless set him out of the way with one arm. "To bed!" he cried. Meredith wrung his hands. "The doctor"-

"Doctor be hanged!" "What in the name of all that's terrible is the matter, John?"
His companion slung a light overcoat, unfolded, on the overflowing, mis-shapen bundle of clothes that lay in the trunk, then he jumped on the lid with both feet and kicked the hasp into the lock, while a very elegantly laundered cuff and shirt sleeve dangled out from under the fastened lid. "I haven't one second to talk, Tom; I have eighteen minutes to catch the express. It's more than a mile to the station, and the train leaves here at 9:02. I get there at 10:47. Telephone a cab for me, please, or tell me the number. don't want to stop to hunt it up."

Meredith looked him in the eyes. In the pupils of Harkless flared a flerce His cheeks were reddened with an angry, healthy glow, and his teeth-were clinched till the line of his jaw "Yes," he answered quietly, "I am

"Thank you, Tom," said Harkless simply.

Meredith ran into his room, pressed an electric button and began to dive that training to remain in the schools.—Omaha Bee. astonishingly foreign to his desire. The ored man appeared in the doorway. "The cart, Jim!" shouted his man "We want it like lightning. Tell the cook to give Mr. Harkless his breakfast in a hurry. Set a cup of coffee on the table by the front door for me. Run! We've got to catch a train. That will be quicker than any cab," he expla to Harkless. "We'll break the ordi-nance against fast driving getting

Ten minutes later the cart swept away from the house at a gait that pained the respectable neighborhood.
The big horse plunged through the air, his ears laid flat toward his tail. The cart careened sickeningly, and the face of the servant clutching at the rail in the rear was smeared with pallor as they pirouetted around curves on one wheel. To him it seemed they skirted the corners and death simultaneously, and the speed of their going nade a strong wind in their faces. Harkless leaned forward, "Can you make it a little faster, Tom?" he said. It feeds the nerves, strengthens make it a little faster, Tom?" he said. They dashed up to the station amid the cries of people flying to the walls for safety. The two gentlemen leaped from the cart, bore down upon the ticket office, stormed at the agent and ran madly at the gates, flourishing their passports. The official on duty eyed them wearlly. "Been gone two minutes," he remarked with a peaceable yawn.

Harkless stamped his foot on the cement flags; then he stood stock still, gazing at the empty tracks, but Mere-dith turned to him, smiling. "Won't it keep?" he asked.
"Yes it will keep." John answered.

"Part of it may have to keep till elec-tion day, but some of it I will settle before night. And that," he cried be-tween his teeth, "and that is the part of it in regard to young Fisbee!" "Oh, it's about H. Fisbee, is it?"

"Yes, it's H. Fishea."
"Well, we might as well go up and see what the doctor thinks of you; there's no train." "I don't want to see a doctor again ever-as long as I live. I'm as well as Tom burst out laughing and clapped his companion lightly on the shoulder, his eyes dancing with pleasure. "Upon my soul," he cried, "I believe you are iracle wrought by the witch wand

"Meredith," said the other, turning to him gravely, "you may think me a fool if you will, sud it's likely I am, but I don't leave this station except by Harkless, fully dressed, was standing in the middle of the floor. and every minute lessens our chances to beat McCune, and I have to begin by wasting time on a tussle with a traitor.

There's another train at 11:55; I don't take any chances on missing that one."
"Well, well," laughed his friend, pushing him good humoredly toward a door by a red and white striped pillar, "we'll wait here if you like. But at

"Take these, tuen, and you will understand," said Harkless, and he thrust his three telegrams of the morning into Tom's hand and disappeared into at home. He's coming on the 11:55."

Then he read the three telegrams Harkless had given him. They were Sorry cannot onige. Present sentious. Delicate matter. No hope for K. H. But don't worry. Everything all right.

Harkless, if you have the strength the walk, come down before the convention. Get here by 19:47. Looks bad. Come if $\frac{2}{3}$ kills you.

You intrusted me with sole responsibility for all matters pertaining to Herald. Declared yourself mere spectator. Does this permit your interfering with my policy for the paper? Decline to consider any proposition to relieve me of my duties without proper warning and allowance of time. Forced to disregard all suggestions as to policy, which, by your own instructions, is entirely my affair and must be carried out as I direct.

(To be continued.)

(To be continued.)

Dear Sirs,-This is to certify that I

It gives me great pleasure to recommend it and you are at liberty to use this in any way to further the use of your valuable medicine. ROBERT ROSS, Two Rivers, Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion is flesh and blood, bone and muscle. the digestive organs and they feed the whole body.

For nearly thirty years Scott's Emulsion has been the great giver of human flesh. We will send you a couple of ounces free. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto, joe. and $1.00; all druggists.

The Merchant's Position in the Community.

Few people realize the position that merchant occupies in a community They think of him only as a necessary a utensil for the public, but when it omes to fully appreciate what the merchants do toward building up a ommunity, then it is that the apprec iation for this class is not what i should be.

Most people have the peculiar fallaious idea that the merchant has an easy time of it, that he makes a profit f indignation! That's rather against of everything he sells, and his pathadition, isn't it? Well, let's take a a log. They don't consider for a moment the risks the merchant runs; long hours, as the work of many of them does not cease when the store s counts to look over, the markets t be familiar with, and the great weight of responsibility attendant upon the uccessful conducting of business. He must be as punctual as the sun, must sell honest goods and at the same price as pedlars and mail-order houses sell short weight, adulterated and inferior

He is always expected to sell good goods and pay fancy prices for produce especially. His flour is always expected to make the finest bread whether baked properly or not, and if he is in the dry goods or furnishing usiness he is expected to beat everybody else in low prices and best qualities of goods.

It is not fully realized in these strenious days that a merchant must be a hustler, a man whose head teems with ew and progressive ideas and origin al projects, ever ready to do and to dare, to take risks and work with the tmost persistency to have them pull through successfully. He must prove himself a diplomat, a keen conservative buyer, a most persistent advertiser, ever bearing in mind that advertising is the very life-blood of his establishment, as it brings the customers, and there is no other way which will accomplish it. Buyers read least go in there and get a shave; it's a clean shop. You want to look your best if you are going down to fight H. Fiscannot be winked out of sight. among the most substantial citizens. They pay good taxes and are ever ready to help out any good cause. In schooner and was bound from Hillsthe barber shop. When he was gone Meredith went to the telegraph office in the station and sent a line over the have the patronage of their fellow citiwhres to Helen: "Keep your delegation zens, and every dollar possible should At daylight two of the masts, the taining nine persons—four men and resent incumbent ter. No hope for city, and should be sensible enough to Everything all their own people. -A young man choosing a business N. S., in 1889.

than useless in the woods, except in tempt to get on board at low water vance. The business house that makes ies and the growing popular tiemand whole lot better, and it is easy to CAPTAIN'S WHOLE FAMILY LOST.

girls who have a natural taste for industrial training to remain in the schools.—Omaha Bec.

SHVIOCIA

Consumption Begins with a Cough.

The cough racks and tears the tear tissues of the throat. Inflammation supervenes and then serious bronchial or lung trouble is established. The important time is at the beginning. Stay the progress of the cough wanted a pound of human flesh. There are many description supervenes and then serious bronchial or lung trouble is established. The consumptive, the sickly child, the pale young woman, all want human flesh and they can get it—take Scott's Emulsion.

We York and return to her home on St. James street, St. John, with her home on St. James street, St. John, with her home on St. James street, St. John, with her home on St. James street, St. John, with her children. Captain Priddle was about 33 years old. He sailed for a time in small schooners around the bay. Last of competency for the coasting trade and subject to headache, lame back, bearing down pains, despondency and subject to headache, lame back, bearing down pains, despondency and subject to headache, lame back, bearing down pains, despondency and subject to headache, lame back, bearing south again this winter tion to go south again this winter. Captain Priddle and his wife were born in Carbonear, Newfoundland. The captain has two brothers, masters of schooners.

A Judiclous Inquiry stop, the colonnades built bear the financial success. The receipts were sufficient to pay all the running expenses in connection with the exhibition, to pay for the colonnades built bear the heart druggists inquire of custom whether it was wanted for a child or a child for a child they almost invariably recommended Cham.

New York and return to her home on the filling was able to headach, lame the correction and success. The captain has the consultant the construction of custom the construction of the heart of the cough heals of the cough heals of competency for the coasting trade a and muscle.

and muscle.

s. strengthens

In so and they

years

en the

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

We Laxattre Bromo Quibling 72.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

We Laxattre Bromo Quibling 72.

A well known travelling man who travelling travelling to pay all the r. sufficient to pay

Take Laxative Brome Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure E. W. Grove's signature is on each box.

YOUR EYES

glasses; you need them;

us test your eyes free and letting us give you honest advice free.

We Guarantee Our WOrk We're always here

Royal Pharmacy SHIP

W. A. WARREN, Phm. B., Graduate Optician.

Washed Ashore. Chatham, Mass., October 14. Driven down the coast by a northeast surf. It is believed that not a soul on believed that the ill-fated vessel car Ther merchants of a community are ried a crew of at least eight men besides her skipper, Capt. Priddle. The Wentworth was a three masted order to be successful they should boro, N. B., to New York with a load be given them. Persons who run out of town with their cash, should bear the stern had broken away. The life-ment at the southern end of Jerome give this matter due consideration and spend their money at home among their own people.

The Wentworth was of 328 tons burlens, and struck the automobile. Three persons were killed, two instantly; two den. She was built in Port Greville, were seriously injured. The other or profession should enter that one for which he shows capacity. A pronounced preference for any calling is not necessary to full success in it, but where a preference is combined with accomplished, energy, enthusiasm and the will-power to surmount obstacles water it is entirely submerged. Only mean success, and wherever success is the foremast remains standing, and attained you will find that these quarities have been present in living force.

SAVE

by a competent Optician; By not wearing unsuitable

By not being without any if By coming here and having

Bodies of a Woman and Man

been smashed to pieces in the terrific board survived. At 7 o'clock this morning the body of a woman was broker of Halifax, has assigned. Mr. government life savers, who had been awaiting on the beach powerless to At 8 o'clock to-day another hody that of a man, was recovered. It is the most extreme cases. Hot tea will this afternoon, but the sea was found and sells better goods than competi--Manual training schools are multi-plying in all the large American cit-will do as a stimulant, and do it a an angry, healthy glow, and his teeth were clinched till the line of his jaw stood out like that of an embattled athlete. His brow was dark, his chest was thrown out, and he took deep, quick breaths. His shoulders were squared, and in spite of his thinness they looked massy. Lethargy or malaria, or both—whatever his aliment—it was gone. He was six feet of hot wrath and cold resolution.

Friends very Anxious about Conductor where a preference is combined with ability and adaptability the road is easier. Strict honesty is necessary to business success. Ability to work—to keep on keeping on—contributes more to success than experience. Ability will acquire experience and make a study of what is necessary to win in the battle. Incompetence, lack of thoroughness and self-discipline are the causes of a majority of the failures. The doing of a duty, simplicity in living, earnestness of purpose, hard the causes of a majority of the fair-have been troubled with a lame back for fifteen years.

I have used three bottles of your MINARD'S LINIMENT and am com-work, careful study of what is to be dismal aspect. The body of the vessel (Signed) ROSS McLEC Conductor Inverness Railway.

Tom said. "You are going?"

Tow said. "You are going?" from the books to the workshop and from the workshop to the books again, supplying a rational education which not only furnishes a knowledge of mechanics, but also at the same time constitutes an incentive for boys and circle where the constitutes an incentive for boys and circle where the constitutes are incentive for properties. The constitutes are incentive for properties and the same time constitutes are incentive for properties. The constitutes are incentive for properties and result Priddle had his wife and children with him. The oldest was a boy five years old, the youngest six months old. Mrs. Priddle joined her husband a few months ago. It was her intention to leave the vessel in New York and return to her home on the properties of constitutes an incentive for boys and girls who have a natural taste for industrial training to remain in the schools.—Omaha Bee.

The can be made in a lew-line freely. The can be made

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF.

Lord Milner, High Commissioner for South Africa, has resigned owing to Moncton despatches say that a big ville, Kent county, N. B., at 450 feet. Robert J. Wynn has received the apcointment of Postmaster General of the United States, succeeding Henry C.

Payne, who is dead. A Seattle despatch says:-The steamer Garonne has arrived from Nome with 529 passengers and $300,000 in entire trip south was exeptionally stormy. The house of bishops, one of the legislative bodies of the Episcopal general convention, at Boston last week, n marriage and divorce, forbidding the marriage of any divorced persons The Digby fishing schooner, Ernest '. Norwood, went ashore last week crew were landed in safety by the tug Marina, but the vessel will probably

Capt. Jos. E. Snow, of Digby. Rails of the Halifax-South-Western are now laid to within two miles of Liverpool. The steam shovel comnences work just above Whitman's Pond and gravel will be taken from eir to straighten up the Caledonia branch. The iron work of the Mill Village bridge is being put together in the yards here.-Bridgewater Bul-Trophy may be held in Canada. The National Rifle Association of America probably will challenge Great Britain decided in the dominion. In case of acceptance it is likely that the match Ranges at Ottawa. This is said to be

Smith left Halifax a week ago, and clerk. His present whereabouts are bilities are is not known vet but it is presumed the latter are heavy. It is thought that he became involved by a

Driven at the rate of 25 miles an hour, a three seated touring car, con-

McLeod.

Tall the Public

-Alcoholic liquor is generally worse shore. The life savers made an atbound to get the trade, if the public is told about the values being given.

* Consular Agent of the United States. Agent Nova Scotia Building Society

Money to loan at five per cent on R O. T. DANIELS

NOTARY PUBLIC, Etc.

Head of Queen St., Bridgetow Money to Loan on First-Class began the construction of a new bank began the construction of a new bank building of Bedford stone on the corner opposite the Herald. Then it was whis-pered, next affirmed, that Main street was to be asphalted. That was the end the hospital to his own home on a quiet street in Rouen, and John was well enough of his hurts to be taken abroad sometimes in a victoria, where he reclined, gray and thin, seemingly no more than a long afternoon shadow. But for days he would lie in a lethargy that made Tom despair. The soul of the country editor was sick inside of him; he was weary and worn, and pain had left him dulled, except when he thought of returning to Platt-ville; then he felt physical horror. The place did not need him, nor he the > bee" in a strapping hand that suggest-ed six feet of muscle spattering ink on its shirt sleeves.

BRIDGETOWN, N. S.

>
> John wondered idly where old Fisbee had raked up a relative, and he thought it probable that H. Fisbee was a Yankee cousin of the old man, but he did not care much for that or for anything except to keep away from he was to live. And there was no ger need to go there. He was glad to know that. H. Fisbee had written him before the oil bubbled in Eph's wells that to buy stock in Mr. Watts' company might be profitable, especially as the stock was then so low that it was almost imperceptible, and Harkless had ed him as little as did everything else. He left his bed less and less, took no ere drives, and his lethargy deep-The only thing in which he showed interest was the congressional cam-paign of the district. It was far advanced before the Herald spoke of 18 had lifted his head.

One day Tom came in and found him writing on a pad on his knee. Dear Mr. Fisbee-Yours of the total than I entirely approved the total than the total transfer of the transfer of the total transfer of the transfer of the total transfer of the transfer of the total transfer of the total transfer of the total

at all, and Harkless saw that McCune

Fine Watch Repairing.

THOS. BIRD,

Practical Watchmaker,

Begs to anform the people of Bridgetown and surrounding country that he has permanently lecated next to Dr. DeBlois' office on Granville street, where he is prepared to clean and expair all kinds of watches and clocks, and trusts by sound work and moderate charges to merit a fair share of public patronage.

UNION BANK OF HALIFAY

INCORPORATED 1856.

Capital Authorized, - $3,000,000

Capital Subscribed, - 1,336,150

Capital Paid Up, - 1,336,150

Capital Paid Up, - 1,336,150

Reserve Fund, - 931,405

WM. Rocher, M. P., Vice-President. W. W. Rocher, N. President. W. M. Rocher, M. P., Vice-President. When the letter was concluded, he handed it to Mercelith. "Please ad-

When the letter was concluded, he dress that, put a 'special' on it and send it, Tom. It should go at once, so as to reach him tonight."
"H. Fisbee?"
"Yes—H. Fisbee." "I believe it does you good to write, boy," said the other as he bent over him. "You look more chirrupy than

Tom," he said, with a quivering effort to smile. "Don't you think I am? I don't—I don't know what I should have "You old Indian!" said Meredith tenderly.

Three days later Tom was rejoiced by symptoms of invigoration in his pa-tient. A telegram came for Harkless, and Meredith, bringing it into the sick room, was surprised to find the occu-pant sitting straight up on his couch without the prop of pillows. He was "Mismanagement, I hope," said the other in a strange voice; "worse, per-haps. It's this young Fishee. I can't Take cold easily? Throa tender? Lungs weak? Any relatives have consumption Then a cough means a great Cherry Pectoral deal to you. Follow your doctor's advice and take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It heals, strengthens, prevents "For 40 years I have depended on Ayer Cherry Pectoral for coughs and colds, know it greatly strengthens weak lungs." MRS. P. A. ROBINSON, Saline, Mic

