¹ This is beyond question the origin of the name of the city of Quebec. The French pronounce Quebec not kwe-bēk, as the English do, but kēb-bēk, the exact pronunciation of the Indian word. The "Narrows," above Halifax Harbor, and a narrow place in the Liverpool River just below Milton, are thus named by the Indians. The syllable kēb or kēp, which is the same exactly in meaning, means to stop or impede, to choke up, etc. Many words begin with this syllable; as, kēbejokūm, to stop a hole; kēbejokteskum, to shut a door; kēbadagwā', to be hoarse, to have the voice impeded; kēbaadoo, to stanch blood; kebāpskitk, the stream is obstructed by rocks; kēbāmkoogwēk, the mouth of the river is obstructed by sand thrown in by the waves; kēbe-skoonei, my nose is stopped; etc.
