

J. S. HAMILTON & CO.

Messrs J. S. Hamilton & Co.'s premises are the most extensive in Canada of any house devoted exclusively to the Wine and Spirit Trade, being 115 feet in depth and 37 feet in width. In their vaults are stored the entire stock of Wines produced by the extensive Vineyards of Pisco Island, the most Southern point in Canada. The business was commenced in 1871, and since 1875, Mr. J. S. Hamilton has been the sole partner. An exhibit of the Pisco Island Vineyard Wine is made by Messrs. J. S. H. & Co. at the Indian and Colonial Exhibition in London this year. This firm also represents in Canada the following firms: Ayala & Co., Ay, France; J. H. Henkes, Delfts Haven, Holland; William Younger & Co., Edinburgh; A. Maignon & Co., Cognac; R. Van Zeller, Oporto; D. G. Ross, Ben Wyvis Distillery, Dingwall; E. Thompson & Co., Newry; Hanappier & Co., Bordeaux; Louis Latour, Beaune, France; Sanchez Romate, Hermance, Perez & Co., &c. Full lines are carried of all these firm's goods, and orders are solicited for direct importation.
