

TRIAL AND DEATH OF JESUS CHRIST.

A Devotional History of Our Lord's Passion.

By JAMES STALKER, D.D.

CLOTH, $1.75.

This volume, the author tells us, is the outcome of a desire formed in the writing of his "Life of Christ," to describe on a much more extended scale the closing passages of the Saviour's earthly history. It commences with the point where Jesus fell into the hands of his enemies, and closes with the Burial. Those who have read the former volume will no doubt be eager to procure this, especially in view of the International S. S. Lessons taking up in the near future the study of the close of the Saviour's life on earth.

Much has been written on the life of the great Israelitish leader. One might wonder what more could be written with force and freshness, but those who know Mark Guy Pearse know that his pen touches no subject without throwing upon it fresh light and extracting new lessons.

MY

Happy Half-Century

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF AN AMERICAN WOMAN

By Frances E. Willard

With an Introduction by Lady Henry Somerset

CLOTH, WITH PORTRAITS, $1.25

FROM the characteristic "Prefatory" we take the following words: "The wise ones tell us that we change utterly once in every seven years, so that from the vantage-ground of life's serene meridian I have looked back upon the seven persons whom I know most about: the welcome child, the romping girl, the happy student, the roving teacher, the tireless traveller, the temperance organizer, and, lastly, the politician and advocate of woman's rights! Since all these are sweetly dead and gone, why should not their biographies and epitaphs, perchance their eulogies, be written by their best informed and most indulgent critic?"
