

SERGEANT'S BOOTH

CALL AND SEE OUR FANCY WORK

IT IS UNSURPASSED.

Henry Walters,
Chemist
and Druggist,
Cor. Bank and Sparks Sts.

Taylor & Clarke,

General

Job

Printers.

Queen Street, Ottawa.

Confectionery and Cough Drop Co.

S. E DELA RONDE, PROP.

Sproule & O'Connor,

Photographers

134 BANK STREET,

Mastodon Minstrels.

SATURDAY EVENING, DEC. 2nd.

GRAND LYRIC AND MILITARY FIRST PART.

COMPANY.

Its TENORS	2nd TENORS	BARITONES.	BASSES
W. Howe,	W. Thicke,	G. Parson,	A. Carter,
E. Grant,	W. Burrill,	V. Hall,	H. Howe,
M. Howe,	W. T. Wall,	Alva Armstrong,	W. Smith,
BONES.	INTERLOCUTOR.	TAMBOS.
W. T. Wall,	Geo. Parson.	Alva Armstrong,
M. Howe.		W. Howe.

MUSICAL DIRECTOR—J. McGillicuddy.

PROGRAMME.

- 1.—Opening Chorus—"March de Carabas," from "Jack and the Beanstalk,"Company
- 2.—Instrumental Overture—"Tzing Boom"Bones and Tambos
- 3.—Alva Armstrong, the eccentric comedian, in his latest, "Home was never like This."
- 4.—"Soldiers of the Queen,"G. Parson.
- 5.—"The Navy"—Sailor's Hornpipe, in costumeW. Annand.
- 6.—W. T. Wall will introduce his up-to-date monologue, and the famous songs, "I'd Leave My Happy Home for You," and "Only One Hundred Girls."
- 7.—The song of the Regiment—"The Boys of the 43rd," sung by the composer, W. H. Thicke.
- 8.—"Ginger Lou," by Alva Armstrong, introducing the famous Wing Reel.

GRAND FINALE.

"I've Just Received a Telegram From Baby,"
.....W. T. Wall and entire company.

The furniture used in the stage decorations has been kindly loaned by J. O. Leblanc, the popular furniture dealer, Nos. 179 and 181 Rideau street.

The song of the Regiment, "The Boys of the 43rd," will be on sale at Sergeants' Mess Booth.

GEO. L. BLATCH,

CHARTERED ACCOUNTANT,

Sparks Chambers, Ottawa.

W. H. Sproule,
Watchmaker
and Jeweller,
164 Sparks St.

Parsons & Co.
WHOLESALE
CROCKERY

Sussex Street, Ottawa

S. Rogers & Son Co.

Undertakers

and Embalmers,

36 Rideau St. Ottawa.

M. M. PYKE,

PHONE 122.

99 SPARKS STREET