W. A. STARNAMAN,
Business Manager of
The ADVOCATE.

Last month we promised a big number for May. Here it is just as advertised. We intend to issue extra numbers occasionally but we will not give a lengthy notice in advance. To be sure of having your ad. in these special numbers the best thing you can do is to get one of our advertising contract blanks and fill it out. You will then be sure of having your ad. in every number. Remember that every promise we have made has been kept. For future numbers we promise better paper both for the cover and for the inside.

We wish to thank the members of the Hamilton Stamp Club for the valuable assistance they have given us with this issue. We also tender our thanks to the following for the loan of cuts etc. Wood Vallance & Co., Turner & Co., Y. M. C. A. and "Times," Hamilton, Ont.; F. I. Weaver, Berlin; C Bailey, Kaukaunna, Wis and J. A. Wainwright, Northampton, Mass.

The words on our wrapper

An "Your subscription expires"

Explanation. have caused some confusion among society members

The month your subscription expires is written after the words so that you always know your standing on our books. Papers to society members are marked "D. P. A." or "C. S. E." This does not signify that your membership in the society has expired but that your subscription to this paper expires when you drop the society.

A Hon. Wm. Mulock, Post
Two-cent Master-General of Canada,
Rate. has introduced a bill into

Parliament which provides for a two-cent letter rate instead of three cents as at present. This will be heartily received by the business men all over the country. There is another provision in the bill that does not meet with the approval of all i. e. a rate of a half-cent a pound will be imposed on newspapers, which have hitherto been carried free to subscribers. We must congratulate Mr. Mulock on the manner in which he has improved the postal system
