THE Misses Clouston, sisters of Mr. E. S. Clouston, have taken up their residence in Toronto for the winter.

MR. F. PAUL, of the well-known firm of Belding, Paul & Co., has lately returned from visiting his family, who for the past two years have made their home in Dresden, Germany. Miss Louise Paul is spending the winter in Paris, where she intends studying languages and music.

MISS CARMICHAEL, West Virginia, is visiting her uncle, the Very Reverend Dean Carmichael, St. George's Rectory.

IN spite of December being a somewhat cheerless month for marriages, as a rule, it seems to be a popular one this year. For early in the month the marriage will take place of Mr. F. C. Hutchison, of the Bank of Montreal, and Miss Payne, of Wilkesbarre, Penn. Mr. Hutchison is most popular in social and golfing circles, and his future wife, Miss Payne, is also well known in Montreal, having frequently visited here, the guest of Mrs. F. W. May.

Then, before Christmas, the wedding will take place of Miss Mabel Galt, daughter of the late Sir A. T. Galt, and Mr. McGrath, of Lethbridge, Alberta. Miss Galt will be very much missed in Montreal, for she will make her home in Lethbridge, as Mr. McGrath's business necessitates his residence there.

IT is with much regret that the news has been received of Mr. Alfred Trevithick's intended departure for Brussels, which in the future will be his home. At the same time, he is to be congratulated on the excellent position he will assume there in connection with the Egyptian Government Railway.

ON Friday last, Mrs. Hector Mackenzie, Sherbrooke street, entertained a number of friends at luncheon. Among those invited were: Mrs. C. McEachran, Mrs. J. C. Hatton, Mrs. H. M. Allan, Mrs. A. M. Esdaile, Mrs. Louis Sutherland, Mrs. Frank Stephen.

IN spite of all the calls upon private generosity for public ends, there seems to be no limit to the liberality of some prominent Montrealers. The gift of one individual has supplied St. Paul's Church with a new organ; through another, St. George's will soon be the richer by a new clock and chime of bells. And last, but not least, comes the turn of Christ Church Cathedral to be showered with benefits. Mr. Hector Mackenzie is responsible for the donation of a "celestial organ," which contains eight stops and a chime of bells, and is to be placed in the tower. By those competent to judge, it is said that this gift will be a wonderfully beautiful addition to the musical portion of the service. It is always pleasant to hear of any improvement to the cathedral, which, architecturally, is one of the most perfect edifices in the city.

MR. AND MRS. C. B. ESDAILE have lately taken up their residence in those very delightful apartment houses situated at the corner of Durocher and Sherbrooke streets.

The growing demand for flats, with their lack of stairs and waste room, and the presence of all modern improvements, makes one fear for the total abolition or demolition of self-contained houses. The day may come when the various sets in Montreal will find it pleasanter to live in self-supported institutions with a common kitchen, dining-room and drawing-room, and even day-nursery. Thus, the servant question would cease to be a common topic, for a dozen families would soon say all they had to say, in regard to one cook.

MR AND MRS. ALEX. SINCLAIR and Miss Sinclair, who have spent the summer at Dorval, will remain in Montreal for the winter, and have taken Mr. W. McLennan's house, 1052 Dorchester street.

Mrs. Charles Percy, Weredale Park, left this week on a short visit to Mrs. Meredith, Port Hope.

ON Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. D. B. Macpherson, Mountain street, entertained a number of friends at a most delightful tea. Miss Dunlop, Miss L. Dunlop, the Misses Taylor, Miss Ewan and Mrs. W. Wonham assisted in the tea-room, and among those invited were: Mrs. Coristine, Miss Coristine, Mrs. E. H. King, Mrs. Papineau, Mrs. Angus, the Misses Angus, Mrs. H. Graham, Mrs. E. G. Penny, Mrs. Gillespie Muir, Mrs. Dunlop, the Misses Dunlop, Mrs. W. W. Watson, Mrs. W. A. Fleming, Mrs. S. Greenshields, Mrs. Denne, Mrs. Spackman, Mrs. G. Molson, Miss Molson, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Bond, the Misses Bond, Mrs. H. Wonham, Mrs. Parker, Miss Parker, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Root, Mrs. Durnford, Mrs. G. Ross, Lady Van Horne, the Misses Van Horne, Mrs. Duncan Macpherson, Mrs. Tyre, Miss Tyre, Mrs. Piers, Miss Piers, Mrs. Burnett, Miss Burnett, Mrs. J. F. Burnett, Mrs. G. A. Drummond, Miss Drummond, Mrs. Brainerd, Miss Brainerd, Miss Hagar, Mrs. J. K. Ward, the Misses Ward, Mrs. J. Taylor, Miss B. Taylor, Mrs. Ewan, the Misses Ewan, Mrs. Shaughnessy, Miss Shaughnessy, Mrs. J. M. Pangman, Miss Linton, Miss Towne, Mrs. Mitchell, the Misses Mitchell, Mrs. Wonham, Miss Wonham, Mrs. C. Nelles, Mrs. Eadie, Miss Eadie, Mrs. Lansing Lewis, Mrs. A. A. Browne, Mrs. K. R. Macpherson, Mrs. Mills, Miss Mills, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Peterson, and many others.

MISS L. THISTLE, who was visiting Mrs. C. H. Godfrey, has returned to Ottawa.

Mrs. Dickie, of Dublin, Ireland, arrived in Montreal this week, and is visiting Mrs. John Hope, "Dalmeny," Dorchester street.

Miss Mabel Selater, eldest daughter of C. P. Selater, will spend the winter in London studying at the Slade School of Art.

THE eleventh annual afternoon tea, to be held at Conservatory Hall, St. Catherine street, on Saturday, November 18, promises to be, as usual, a delightful entertainment. It has always a large and fashionable attendance. The music is always good and the refreshments prettily served. Besides, it is in aid of a praiseworthy object, the Montreal Free Library, which has a circulation of some 18,000 volumes yearly, and supplies the best literature in every department to all who may apply, irrespective of creed or race. The library should be better known, and is certainly deserving of public encouragement.

CHURCH bazaars will soon be a thing of the past in Montreal, as it is understood Archbishop Bruchesi has forbidden them for the future.

NEXT WEEK'S FEATURES.

LIFE, next week, will contain much matter to interest and entertain the average reader. The final instalment of Sir Robert Peel's clever novel will appear, and also an excellent short story by Adeline Sergeant, author of "The Story of a Penitent Soul," "Jacobi's Wife," "Under False Pretences," "The Great Mill Street Mystery," etc. A number of portraits and sketches of prominent people and several special articles of a timely character will be provided, and the paper, as usual, will be profusely illustrated and handsomely printed. Everyone should secure a copy. The following week, November 25, we shall commence the publication of a capital new serial story, "Lady Mary of the Dark House," by Mrs. C. N. Williamson, a writer of growing reputation.
