At Bethlehem.

T Bethlehem in Glory's sheen
The forms that made the night serene,
The night wherein the Mother-Maid
Her Lambkin in the manger laid,
Our guardian angels were, I ween.

So, shepherds were by sheperds seen,
And bade them go where they had been,
And search as if a lamb had strayed,
At Bethlehem.

And Mary since must intervene
Our angels and our souls between,
For, left without a mothers aid,
How could they learn their heavenly trade?
Of these her Baby crowned her queen
At Bethlehem.
