They are classed by themselves, which means a great deal more than can be shown in an advertisement.

SOME NEW BOOKS:

CANADIAN COPYRIGHT EDITION.

Beautiful Joe, The Autobiography of a Dog, by Marshall Saunders, with an Introductory Note, in facsimile, by the Countess of Aberdeen. 12mo, cloth, illustrated, 304 pp., only 75c.

Sunday School Times:

"Beautiful Joe" does for the dog what Black Beauty did for the horse. The two books are written in much the same style, both reading as autobiographies. It will be an important addition to any library intended for young people, especially that of the Sabbath School.

The Raiders, being Some Passages in the Life of John Faa, Lord and Earl of Little Egypt. Crockett's New Book. Paper, 60 cents, cloth, 409 pp., $1.25

Of the English edition of this book, 3,000 copies were sold previous to publication. In "The Stickit Minister," Crockett appears as a "new Barrie"; in "The Raiders" he is a "second Stevenson" so say the critics. The latter story reminds the reader strongly of Blackmore's "Lorna Doone." We can pay it no stronger compliment.

The Stickit Minister and Some Common Men By S. B. Crockett, cloth only, 288 pp., $1.25.

Any of above books post-free on receipt of price.
