

Dr. W. White spoke at some length on this paper, and considered the subject a very important one and worthy of consideration. He termed the paper as "original and almost revolutionary."

A vote of thanks was given Dr. Coulthard for the able and impartial manner in which he filled the office of President.

After the thanks of the visiting members to the members of Moncton, meeting adjourned sine die.

J. McNICHOL, M. D.,
Secretary.
