

"Let him that heareth say, Come."
Revelation xxii. 17.

EVANGELISTIC BIBLE CLASS

HELD
EVERY SUNDAY AFTERNOON,

AT 3 O'CLOCK.

All Welcome.

LECTURE COURSE.

Our Members' Course of Parlor Lectures has been arranged for, and the Committee's Annual Circular will be issued this week.

The Committee has arranged with the Fisk Jubilee Singers to furnish one of their enjoyable concerts on the evening of Friday, November 9th. This Concert will form one of the Public Course.

From the information given us we are led to believe that this will be the last opportunity afforded (for some years to come) for hearing these "sweet singers."

GOSPEL MEETING.

At the Gospel and Song service on Sunday evening last, the attendance was very large. At the after meeting, three requested prayer, and one professed to have found peace through believing.

A MEETING FOR ENQUIRERS

IS HELD

EVERY MONDAY EVENING,

From 7.30 till 9,

In Parlor C. (up stairs) Shaftesbury Hall.

THE NEGLECTED LETTER.

THE young man, J. W., had run away from home and family, but he could not run away from conscience. Alone on sentry duty beneath the glittering tropical sky, or amid noisy companions in the hot and smoky barrack room, the voice of conscience spoke to him, bringing back memories of early teaching, when he had listened to the Gospel message of redeeming love. These memories came back upon him now, biting like an adder, stinging like a scorpion; he must escape from them, or they would drive him mad; so to stifle that voice within, he plunged into yet wilder excesses, passing the most vicious of his companions in his sin and folly.

The regiment had been some months on duty, when the barrack was one morning thrown into unusual excitement and commotion by the arrival of the English mail.

"Something for you," said the orderly whose duty it was to distribute the contents of the mail bag, as he handed

"Let us watch and be sober."
1 Thes. v. 6.