NEW BRUNSWICK.

(From the St. John Observer, Oct. 17, 1848.)

As at this season of the year and throughout the winter months, coughs and colds are the most prevalent of all the various ills that flesh is heir to, we would advise such our readers and others who may be thus afflicted, to avail themselves of that excellent medicine,

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

which, judging from our own experience, and that of others, we consider as being one of the safest and most effectual remedies that has ever been concocted for the above complaints, and which meets with the cordial approval of many of the best physicians. And as delays are dangerous, and coughs and colds frequently terminate in consumption, this efficacious and agreeable remedy should at once be resorted to. Mr. B. L. Tilley, is the agent in this city, who can enumerate many instances in which the most pleasing results have followed from the use of Wistar's Balsam.

The genuine is signed I. BUTTS.

On the contrary, like other Building Societies, the advantages of the Church of England and Metropolitan Building Society will be fully open to all parties, without distinction, who may choose to take Stock therein, either for investment—the acquisition of freehold or leasehold estate—the removal of incumbrances or liabilities upon property—the privilege of borrowing the amount of their shares in advance, upon furnishing approved mortgage security.

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS

AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & Co., No. 54, Gold Street New York, continues to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called the "Farmer's Guide to Scientific and Practical Agriculture."

By HENRY STEPHENS, F.R.S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c.; assisted by JOHN P. NORTON, M.A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture, in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1,400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than 600 engravings on wood, in the highest style of the art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The work is being published in Semi-monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel engravings, and is sold at 25 Cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals Re-published are as follows, viz.:

- The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative).
The Edinburgh Review, (Whig).
The North British Review, (Free-Church).
The Westminster Review, (Liberal), and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other Journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel" (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsula Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by M. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS:

For any one of the four Reviews $3.00

For any two do. 5.00

For any three do. 7.00

For all four of the Reviews, 8.00

For Blackwood's Magazine, 3.00

For Blackwood and three Reviews, 9.00

For Blackwood and the four Reviews, 10.00

For Farmer's Guide (complete in 22 Nos.) 5.00

(Payments to be made in all cases in Advance.)

Remittances and communications should be always, post-paid or franked, to the Publishers.
