

British Columbia Magazine

AUGUST 1912

TWO THOUSAND SQUARE MILES OF COAL

An illustrated article dealing with the vast anthracite deposits at Grand Hog Mountain. "The greatest economic discovery yet made in British Columbia."

VICTORIA HARBORS

A story by Ernest McGaffey on the extensive harbor works now in hand at Victoria.

PRINCE RUPERT

The possibilities of the coming port of Northern British Columbia.

THE CHALLENGE OF THE MOUNTAINS

A series of beautiful pictures of the Rocky Mountains along the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway.