SOUTH CENTRAL TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

The sixth annual convention was held at Baldur on October 19th and 20th. There was an attendance of 72. Mayor Cleghorn welcomed the teachers, speaking on service and sacrifice. Some of the practical subjects discussed were: The Curriculum, by Inspector Hartley; Drawing, by Mr. Purell; Modern Tendencies, by Inspector Woods; Handwork, by Miss Sinclair; The Annual Fair, by Miss McPhail; The Teacher on the Playground, by Miss Wile; Gardening, by Miss Green; Writing, by Miss Hayes; The Noon Hour, by Miss Stephenson; The Library, by Miss Hill;

Geography, by Inspector Parr; Manual Training, by Inspector Dunlop; History, by Mr. Christopherson; Physical Culture, by Miss Reddie; and Elementary Science, by Mr. Marsh.

The public meeting was addressed by Mr. McIntosh, secretary of the Boy Scouts, and by Mr. J. L. Brown, of Pilot Mound. Both addresses were helpful and inspiring.

The officers for next year are: President, Mr. Bond; vice-president, Miss Collins; secretary, Mr. King; executive, Misses Lerandean, Wile, McPhail, Hill and Inspector Dunlop.
