

ARTICLE XI—Guaranties prescribed by the United States Atomic Energy Act of 1954

The Government of Canada Guaranties that:

A. The security safeguards and standards prescribed by the security arrangements between the Commission and the Atomic Energy Control Board of Canada, in effect on June 15th, 1955, will be maintained with respect to all classified information and materials, including equipment and devices, exchanged under this Agreement.

B. No material, including equipment and devices, transferred to the Government of Canada or authorized persons under its jurisdiction by purchase or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement will be used for atomic weapons, or for research on or development of atomic weapons, or for any other military purpose.

C. No material, including equipment and devices, or any Restricted Data transferred to the Government of Canada or authorized persons under its jurisdiction pursuant to this Agreement will be transferred to unauthorized persons or beyond the jurisdiction of the Government of Canada, except as the Commission may agree to such a transfer to another nation, and then only if the transfer of the material or Restricted Data is within the scope of an Agreement for Co-operation between the United States and the other nation.

ARTICLE XII—Guaranties by the Government of the United States of America

The Government of the United States of America guaranties that:

A. The security safeguards and standards prescribed by the security arrangements between the Commission and the Atomic Energy Control Board in effect on June 15th, 1955, will be maintained with respect to all classified information and materials, including equipment and devices, exchanged under this Agreement.

B. No material, including equipment and devices, or any Restricted Data transferred to the Government of the United States or authorized persons under its jurisdiction pursuant to this Agreement will be transferred to unauthorized persons or beyond the jurisdiction of the Government of the United States of America, except as the Government of Canada may agree to such a transfer to another nation.

ARTICLE XIII—Statement concerning Construction of Article II A and B (2) and Article XI B

Article II A and B (2) and Article XI B shall not be construed to prevent the Government of Canada from selling materials produced in its reactors to the Government of the United States for defence use or from making available, to the extent the Government of Canada may agree to do so, its reactor testing facilities for use by the Government of the United States in connection with the defence aspects of atomic energy.
