

(c) the disability or alleged disability of a person, purported to have arisen or to have been contracted during, in the course of, or as a result of the service of such person as an officer or man, is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both fine and imprisonment. 5

Personation. 233. Every person who falsely personates any other person in respect of any duty, act or thing required to be performed or done under this Act by the person so personated is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both fine and imprisonment. 10 15

Representation of desertion. 234. Every person who falsely represents himself to any military or civil authority to be a deserter from His Majesty's Forces is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both fine and imprisonment. 20

Failure to attend parade. 235. (1) Every officer or man of the reserve forces who without lawful excuse neglects or refuses to attend any parade, drill or training at the place and hour appointed therefor is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction for each offence, if an officer to a fine of ten dollars, and if a man to a fine of five dollars. 25

Each absence an offence. (2) Absence from any parade, drill or training mentioned in subsection one shall, in respect of each day on which such absence occurs, be a separate offence. 30

Neglecting personal equipment. 236. Every officer or man of the reserve forces who fails to keep in proper order any personal equipment or who appears at drill, parade or on any other occasion with his personal equipment out of proper order, unserviceable or deficient in any respect is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each offence. 35

Interruption of drill or training. 237. Every person who without reasonable excuse interrupts or hinders the Canadian Forces at drill, training or while on the march is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars for each offence; and may be taken into custody and detained by any person by the order of an officer until such drill, training or march is over for the day. 40
