MILITARY COURTS-MARTIAL

Mr. GAUTHIER:

1. How many military courts-martial have been held in Canada since the declaration of war in September, 1939?

2. How many in each military district?

3. In how many have the proceedings been public; what are the districts and what is the nearest city or town thereto?

Mr. RALSTON:

1. 3,398 up to 28th February, 1943.

2. Military district No. 1, 147; military district No. 2, 633; military district No. 3, 563; military district No. 4, 122; military district No. 5, 349; military district No. 6, 350; military district No. 7, 167; military district No. 10, 253; military district No. 11, 93; military district No. 12, 99; military district No. 13, 103; Pacific command, 129; Petawawa, 94; Camp Borden, 96; in various formations apart from districts, 200.

3. With the exception of three (3) courts-martial, all proceedings were in open court and therefore public. The proceedings of the three (3) courts-martial mentioned pertained to the escape of certain prisoners of war from internment camps and for reasons of security they were not held in open court. They took place in military districts Nos. 2 and 3.

Remainder of question answered as far as possible by No. 2.
