

CONTENTS.

Emigrants' Guide Map - - - - - to face Title-page

INTRODUCTION.

Present Position of Agriculturists in England. — Continued Rise of Rent. — Increased Rate of Wages not equally certain. — Competition in the Hire of Land. — Whence it arises. — Foreign Produce. — That of Lands of superior Fertility chiefly affects us. — Increasing Value of Live Stock. — Home Competition the true Source of diminished Profits. — Extent to which the Business of Farming is giving place to other Occupations. — Area of ordinary Farming thus curtailed. — Necessity for Farmers to thin the ranks of Home Competition. — Daily Consumption of Foreign Grain. — Offers a good Prospect to the Emigrant. — The Prairies of Illinois a suitable Field for him. — Their Advantages. — Price. — Aque. — Stock Farming and Indian Corn. — Cost of Voyage and Journey. — The present a very favourable Time - - - Page 1

LETTER I.

Voyage in the "Persia." — New York. — The Hudson River. — Barren Soil. — American Railways. — Saratoga. — Extravagant Prices. — Lake George. — Lake Champlain. — Sunshine and Storm. — Burlington in Vermont. — Maine Liquor Law. — THE BOUNDARY LINE. — Poor French Canadians. — The St. Lawrence. — Montreal. — The Victoria Tubular Bridge. — Grand Trunk Railway. — Ottawa. — The Lumber Trade. — Ottawa or Montreal as the Capital. — Shorter Water Route to the Western Lakes. — Value of Land. — Grants of Land. — Prescott. — Kingston. — Coburg. — Process of clearing the Forest. — Toronto. — Hamilton. — Complaint of low Wages and want of Employment - - - 7

LETTER II.

Falls of Niagara. — CANADA WEST. — Mode of Farming. — Short Wheat Crop. — Average Produce. — London. — Price of Land. — Climate. — Diseases produced by Malaria. — Rich Lands more subject to them than