

- transmitting and explaining the original draft of the Common School Act, 9th Vic., ch. xx, 36-45; ditto, transmitting and explaining the original draft of the School Amendment Act, 10th and 11th Vic., ch. xx, 16-19, 45-49.
- Libraries, Common School, beautiful extract respecting their importance and utility, 80, 81; influence of, 182; study, means and aids to self-education, 135-141.
- Locke on Education, 85.
- London, District Superintendent's remarks on state of schools in, 112; Free School meeting in, 221, 222; Town of, U. C., School proceedings in, 220.
- London Quarterly Journal of Education, On the New England System of Free Schools, 97-103, 119.
- Louisiana, Free Schools in State of, 286.
- Lower Canada, Report of the Superintendent of Education, in, for 1847, 249-253.
- M
- Maine, U. S. System of Schools in cities of, 151, 152.
- Man, a compound of habits, 179.
- Man's Abilities, 369.
- Mann, Hon. Horace, on wages of Teachers, 216; on profane swearing, 247; retires from the office of Secretary to the Massachusetts' Board of Education, 318; extract from a speech of, delivered in Congress on the value of knowledge and against the extension of slavery, 325-328.
- Manure, composition of Stable, &c., 170.
- Marl, composition of, &c., 170.
- Massachusetts, constitution of the Board of Education in the State of, 51; School fund of, upon what conditions distributed, 68, 69; (note) School laws of, quoted, 51, 52, 118; Free Schools of, 97-103, 191; System of Schools in cities of, 152; three Normal Schools of, 223.
- Memory, materials for the, 180; 248.
- Method, the true, of educating all the People, 285.
- Michigan, School laws of, quoted, 71; School System in the State of, 329, 330.
- Mineral substances, table of, 169.
- Mirror* newspaper, noble sentiments of, 306.
- Minister of Public Instruction, office not political in Prussia, 49.
- Model School for U. C. 91.
- Moral Education, its importance, 361-365.
- Mother, the, 333; her powers and responsibility, 183; to mothers, 365, 366.
- N
- Napoleon, on a mother's power and responsibility, 183; and M. de Stael, 365.
- Natchez, U.S., Free Schools in city of, 285.
- National Education, effects of a system of, on the Public Mind, 212.
- National School Readers, contents of, 331-335; remarks on, 337.
- National Schools in Ireland, Report of, for 1847, 279-284.
- New-England, cause of enterprise and prosperity of, 90; System of Free Schools in, 97-103.
- New-York, constitution of the Normal School in the State of, 54; powers of the School Superintendent in the State of, 66-70; School laws of the State of, 47, 54, 66-70, 76, 284; Anniversary of the State Association of Common School Teachers in the State of, 303-305.
- Niagara, Dist. Statistical report of Schools in, 81-85; examination of Schools in the Town of, 149; example of Free School system in District of, 156; 253-254; School Celebration in the District of, 307-310.
- Nobility of Labor, 368.
- Normal School of Upper Canada, importance of, 28, 29; Programme of Lectures in, 59, 60; first Public Examination in, 125, 126, 141-147; second Public Examination in, 313-318.
- Normal School of the State of New-York, how constituted and supported, 54; 375; three N. S. in Massachusetts, 223.
- Normal School Training, 86.
- Normal Schools, effects on private Teachers, 212.
- Notices, 96, 128, 160, 288, 320, 352, 376.
- O
- Object of Education, 243.
- Objection to supporting Common Schools according to property answered, 88.
- Obligations of Educated Men, (Lecture by the Chief Superintendent of Schools,) 161-166, 193-198.
- Office of Trustees, its importance and responsibility, 71, 72; 78.
- Orthography, causes of bad spelling and the remedy, 269-271.
- P
- Paley, quoted, 163.
- Parents, attending School Examinations, 87; duties of, 213; address to, 239-240.
- Peel, Sir Robert, quotation from, 213.
- Penmanship, remarks on and anecdotes of, 209, 210.
- People, economy of educating, 211-215.
- People in country places, U. C., School doings of, 274.
- Perth, Bathurst District, examination of Schools in, 149.
- Pestalozzi on Thinking, 85.
- Pleasures of teaching, 237, 238.
- Plato's maxim, 294.
- Plutarch's opinion of Parents who employ ignorant teachers for their children, 86.
- Poor parents, importance of educating the children of, 214.