

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

	PAGE
Early adventurers. Pytheas. — Dicuil. — Other. — Wulfstan. — The Norsemen. — Iva Bardsen. — The Cabots. — The Cortereals. — Willoughby and Chancellor. — Stephen Burrough. — Niccolò Zeno. — Frobisher. — Pet and Jackman. — Sir Humphrey Gilbert. — Davis. — Barentz	1

CHAPTER II

Seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. Hudson. — Baffin. — Deshneff. — Behring. — Schalaroff. — Tchitschagof. — Anjou and Von Wrangell. — Phipps	18
---	----

CHAPTER III

Early nineteenth century. Ross and Parry, May 3, 1818. Object of voyage, search for Northwest Passage through Davis Strait and explore bays and channels described by Baffin. — Met natives near Melville Bay. — The discovery by Ross of the famous Crimson Cliffs. — Enters Lancaster Sound. — Advance barred by imaginary Crocker Mountains. — Return of expedition to England. — Buchan and Franklin North Polar expedition via Greenland and Spitzbergen. — Dorothea and Trent in Magdalena Bay, June 3, 1818. — Reached high latitude of 80° 37' N. — Course directed to east coast of Greenland. — Disastrous battle with the ice. — Dorothea disabled. — Hasty return to England	29
--	----

CHAPTER IV

1819-1827. Parry's first voyage. — Object, to survey Lancaster Sound and prove the non-existence of Crocker Mountains. — Discovery of new lands. — Parry Islands. — Attains longitude 110° W., thereby winning the bounty of five thousand pounds
---	--