

Ask The Nor'-West Farmer

The Nor'-West Farmer is ever ready to assist readers in solving any of the problems of farming and farm life that may confront them. Our services are without cost to subscribers. We have at our service a corps of the best agricultural, livestock, veterinary, legal and household authorities, and their services are available to subscribers without cost. Our interest in our subscribers does not end in a signed subscription receipt. ¶ We are in business to serve our readers' interests; to promote good farming by publishing informing articles on good farming practices, and by solving practical farm problems.
