

danger, and
to me. We nt storm; I d thrown on
second time,
ain. I now
middle, as a
own into the
t to fasten it
being carried
e fury of the
ound the rope
rance. I was out eight mi-
round me in
ormous size,
me into its
d against my rnestly to the
some time;
rayer, did not
rown aboard
eans the Lord
began now to
with the Dutch
board the Princess-Amelia, of 84 guns. We had a great number killed and wounded; the deck was running with blood; six men were killed, and three wounded, stationed at the same gun with me; my head and face were covered with the blood and brains of the slain: I was wounded, but did not fall, till a quarter of an hour before the engagement ended, and was happy during the whole of it. After being in the hospital three months and 16 days, I was sent to the West-Indies on board a ship of war, and, after cruising in those seas, we returned home as a convoy. Being taken ill of my old wounds, was put into the hospital at Plymouth, and had not been there long, when the Physician gave it as his opinion, that I should not be capable of serving the king again; I was therefore discharged, and came to London, where I lived with a respectable and pious merchant three years, who was unwilling to part with me. During this time I saw my call to the ministry fuller and clearer; had a feeling concern for the salvation of my countrymen: I carried them constantly in the arms of pray-