

7. An assistant Secretary may be appointed by the Council, who shall hold office during their pleasure. They shall define his duties and fix his remuneration.

8. The Editor shall have charge of the publication of the Transactions of the Institute in conjunction with an Editing Committee to be nominated by the Council from among its members at the first meeting thereof after the Annual meeting. All papers or abstracts of papers read before the Institute and intended for publication shall be handed to the Editor at the close of the meetings at which they are read, or as soon as possible thereafter, and the decision as to publishing any paper shall rest with the Editing Committee.

Every report of any Section, Committee or officer of the Institute shall be made to the Council and approved by them before publication.

9. The Librarian shall have the care of all books, documents, plans, drawings, and the general superintendence of the same, under the direction of the Council. He shall keep a list of all donations to the library, and report them to the Council.

10. The Curator shall have charge of the museums and of all models and specimens deposited therein, and the general superintendence of the same, under the direction of the Council. He shall keep a list of all contributions and contributors to the museums, and report them to the Council at the next meeting.

Assistant Curators may be appointed by the Sections, and shall assist the Curator in the care of the museums and the specimens contained in them so far as relates to their own departments.

SECTION VI.

OF MEETINGS.

1. The ordinary meetings of the Institute shall be held at such times as the Council shall direct, but may be changed by resolution of the Institute at any general meeting, after one month's notice. Until otherwise ordered, they shall be held at 20 o'clock on each Saturday from 1st November to 1st of May.

2. The ordinary meetings of Sections shall take place at the times agreed upon by those sections, with the approval of the Council.

3. Special meetings of the Institute may be called :—

(a) By the Council, giving six days' notice in writing, and sending the same by messenger or by mail to the last known address of every member.

(b) By the President, or, in his absence, a Vice-President, on being required so to do by at least twelve members. Such requisition must be in writing, specifying its object. The same notice should be given as in the preceding clause provided.

At such special meetings, twelve members shall constitute a quorum, and no motion shall be deemed carried unless there be such quorum present at the vote, and a majority vote in its favor.
