

over hill and dale, remarked to his boy : "God's love is as great as all that." Then said the boy, "We must be standing right in the middle of it."

" There sometimes comes to soul and sense
The feeling, which is evidence,
That very near about us lies
The realm of spiritual mysteries."

There is a science of the soul. Each soul is an exact centre in the spiritual universe. Through thought-vibration we may be in constant communication with the invisible realm. Spiritual forces envelop the soul as the air hugs the body. A man can expand his soul just as he can inhale the vitalizing atmospherical substance which we call "air." We are surrounded by the spiritual. God is nearer to us than the breath of the body. In Him we live and move and have our being.

" Hast thou not heard it, the universal music,
The throbbing harmony, the old eternal rhyme,
In the wild torrent roaring,
In the mad billow pouring,
And keeping with stars its beat and march sublime !
Hast thou not heard it when the night was silent,
And nothing stirred but winds amid the trees,
And the star-orbits, strings of harps celestial,
Seemed quivering with the rush of melodies ! "
