Bell and Independent Services Are Seeking Business in Unionville.

Toronto Junction, July 6.—William Gardiner, aged 36, died at the General Hospital to-day. He resided at 35 Western-avenue, was an employee of the Heintzman Company, and a member of Orange Lodge 611. The funeral will take place on Monday at Prospect Cemetery.

Loyal Orange lodges 602 and 300 will hold their annual church parade to the Annetta-street Methodist Church on Sunday morning at 10:30. Worcester Lodge, S. O. E., have been invited. Rev. Dr. Hazelwood, pastor of the church, will deliver the address.

The Reds and Blues, two baseball teams of the Waverley Social Club, played a game of baseball on the Annetta-street grounds to-night, resulting in victory for the Reds by 8-6. The property committee of the public school board meet in the town hall on Saturday night.

The general committee in charge of the Twelfth of July celebration, met to-night in the town hall. Reports of the various sub-committees were received. It is reported that forty lodges will line up.

Weston. A. Stult lost a pair of valuable fox-hounds yesterday morning by poison. He is offering $10 reward for the conviction of the person who put down the poison.

A game of lacrosse will be played on the old lacrosse grounds this afternoon between the Matildas of Toronto and the Weston team. The ball will be faced at 3:30. This is a scheduled game in the Senior City Lacrosse League.

North Toronto. The members of Leaside Mission will hold a picnic on the church lawn, Merion-street and second con., East York, this afternoon.

B. Stutchbury of New York is visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. Atkinson, of the Bedford Park Postoffice.

H. W. Distin, nephew of A. H. St. Germain, secretary of the Quebec Y. M. C. A., accompanied by his wife, has been spending his holidays on the St. Germain Park farm.

Town Solicitor T. A. Gibson and family are spending their summer holidays at Port Cockburn, Muskoka.

Rev. Newton Hill, the new pastor of the Davisville Methodist Church, will occupy the pulpit to-morrow.

When the Toronto Railway Company took over the Metropolitan Line, the company endeavored to cut off all their cars to York Mills on the local line. The town council protested, and a morning and evening car were run thru. The fare was raised from 2 cts. to 3 cts. from Glen Grove to the town boundary. Now these cars are cut off, and the residents at Bedford Park are much annoyed. The management of the road contends that the Richmond Hill car will accommodate the passengers from the northern section of the town, but by the time the cars from farther up north arrive at York Mills, southbound, they are exhausted.

While in bed on Monday night, Mr. Whitten, wholesale butcher, of York Mills, was aroused by someone entering his room. He was not alarmed, as he thought that the man who just came in must be his room-mate, but soon everything seemed to be a blank to him. When he awoke, as from a stupor from chloroform, he found his vest pockets rifled. The garment had been between the bedclothes and the mattress. In the neighborhood of $200 in cash was abstracted, checks and other valuable papers being left.

Mr. Whitten is a sick man, and is in a very nervous condition.

A large congregation assembled on the lawn of the Bellinon Methodist Church last night to receive the new pastor of the church, Rev. Nathaniel Wellwood, and to bid farewell to Rev. W. A. Foster, B. A., who is transferring to Weston. Those who took part were Miss Childs, Councilor S. Douglas, R. G. Kirby, Councilor W. J. Lawrence, the Misses Mulholland and Pugsley.

Balm Beach. Rev. Canon Dixon will preach in the Church of England Pavilion on Spruce-avenue, Balm Beach, to-morrow morning, and Rev. T. H. Cotton, M. A., in the evening.

Unionville. Splendid tribute to the progressiveness of the York County farmers was furnished here yesterday in the erection by Henry Smith of one of the finest barns in the province. Some 200 neighbors and friends assisted in the raising. The new structure is 102 ft. long by 45 ft. wide, with centre posts 29 ft. long, and embodies all modern ideas. The masonry work was performed by John Miller, and the carpenter work by William Riddle of Thornhill. "Jimmie" Hood and Thos. Hagerman were chosen captains, the former scoring an easy win.

Miss Laura Eckhart accompanied by her sister, Miss Ella, left to-night on a fortnight's visit to their brother in Boston.

A representative of the Bell Telephone Co. has been in town for some days with a view to installing the system in a number of private houses in town, and is said to have met with indifferent success.

The Independent Telephone Co. have now completed their line into the village, and the fact that the latter company are installing a service at $12 a year with free communication over any part of the line, will, it is said, lead to a big local demand. The rates charged by the Bell Telephone Co. are $20 with service over the Markham and Scarborough lines.

BUCHANAN CENTENARY. St. Andrew's, Scotland, July 6.—To-day at the University of St. Andrew's the quarter-century of George Buchanan, Scottish scholar, historian and poet, is being celebrated.

The chapel was the scene of the exercises, which were followed by an oration on his genius and work. To-morrow there will be a garden party, at which further tributes will be offered to the memory of the great apostle of liberty and typical Scotsman.

GOSPEL HALL NEEDED.

Rev. Melvin Trotter Opens Series of Revival Services.

Metropolitan Church was fairly filled last night when the revival services under the auspices of the Torrey-Alexander Association opened, with Rev. Angus Ranton presiding. Rev. Mr. Ranton will continue to act as chairman during the five days of the revival, which is especially designed to give spiritual strengthening to those who professed conversion during Dr. Torrey's campaign of last winter.

Rev. Melvin E. Trotter of Grand Rapids, Mich., whose rough and ready oratory was an aid to Dr. Torrey while in Toronto, was the speaker last night.

"Any man who has the devil in him will recognize Christ in you if you have him," was the conclusion drawn by Mr. Trotter from his own experiences.

"I wish Toronto had a big gospel hall down at the heart of the city," he said earnestly, in drawing attention to what he thought the city greatly needed to attract casual passers-by.

The Torrey-Alexander choir was not up to full strength, but under the leadership of Dr. G. L. Palmer of Parkdale Methodist church sang with excellent spirit. The choir, which numbered over 600 voices, is desired to be in attendance at 7:30 each evening.

There will be a meeting held this afternoon, but a special service will be conducted on Sunday afternoon.

Blame a Third Party. Robert Kennedy and Peter Sabar appeared in the police court yesterday morning on the charge of stabbing Wesley Spence at the island on June 23. They claimed a man named Jimmy Stefano did the stabbing. The case was remanded for a week.

A Midnight Alarm. Someone pulled box 32, at Queen and Yonge-streets, at the witching hour last night and the firemen from east, west, north and south found that a cigarette had ignited some rubbish in a grate in front of one of the stores near the corner.

SAW THE WEST END PARKS ALDERMEN HARDICE JAUN

They Learned Some Things—No Commissioner of Industries Yet—City Hall Matters.

An educative trip, particularly for the east end aldermen, was taken by the city council, captained by Ald. Vaughan, chairman of the parks committee, yesterday afternoon. The aldermen looked over the west end parks and the garrison commons, and found out a few things which they can now talk intelligently about. Leaving the city hall at 2 o'clock, the inspection commenced at Queen's Park, after the ugliness of the rear end of Simcoe-street houses, as viewed from University-avenue, had been commented upon. Queen's Park is at its best, both the government and the city having looked well after it. One noticeable thing in Queen's Park, and in all the other parks visited, was the fact that there was a lot of useful healthy room unoccupied. The most unpleasant feature was the ever recurring "keep of the grass" sign. Queen's Park gave no claim for suggestion to improve it, and the city fathers drove down to College-street by way of the university and its buildings. They passed the Carnegie Library site, where there are some signs of activity.

The surprise of the day was the swell shape of Alexandra Park on Bathurst-street. Unfortunately, its beauties are confined within a rusty-looking old fence. Great work has been done on the new park, which is the playground for Eyerson School. Tennis games were in progress, and barefooted bairns were jollily rolling down the embankment. The flowers are very beautiful. This latter feature is prominent in all the parks. The old chestnut trees in Alexandra Park are one of its finest points. Unfortunately, its beauties are confined within a rusty-looking old fence. Great work has been done on the new park, which is the playground for Eyerson School. Tennis games were in progress, and barefooted bairns were jollily rolling down the embankment. The flowers are very beautiful. This latter feature is prominent in all the parks.

From there the aldermen went to Bellwoods Park, which was alive with health-holders, who were engaged in all kinds of pastime.

Cars Would Help It. The real interest of the trip centred, however, at the garrison commons, and as a result of the inspection there will not be so much opposition to allowing the street railway to get thru the old fort to the exhibition grounds. Very little of the historic place would be destroyed, and citizens who do not know the beauty of the place could have the opportunity of a convenient occasional look at it. Sgt. Fisher, the much-medalled old chap who keeps the tough element out as early in the night as possible, thinks a street railway and its accompanying lights would be a godsend to the locality. There are several glaring cases of where the steam railways have used portions of the fort property, and are holding it as lib. Fine New Building.

In Exhibition Park the interesting feature was the new process building. It is nearly finished and its enormous size was a revelation. The present building is going up, but the workmen will have to hustle to get it done before the new open. The park is well kept. High Park was thoroughly explored. A landscape gardener has been satisfied to let Nature work uninterrupted out there. A luncheon was held in the pavilion and Ald. Vaughan had cause to swell out a little with pride. So did Commissioner Chambers.

No Co-operation Yet. There is still a deadlock in the board of control as to the appointment of a commissioner of industries. It looks as if the matter will fall over the side next year. Fred Dane would not take it. Controller Ward would not vote for anybody. So there it stands, and unless the board can be persuaded to do some way it will be where it is for some time.

The controllers refused the petition of the white wines, who keep the streets clean and want a half holiday, which Dr. Sheard says would disorganize the service. The men get $12 a week on the understanding that they must work for six days each week.

As to the scheme of Ald. Geary, adopted by the board, to cut over the roads department, the controllers viewed it with some slight trepidation, but they wanted it nevertheless. They liked the idea of having the streets clean and want a half holiday, which Dr. Sheard says would disorganize the service. The men get $12 a week on the understanding that they must work for six days each week.

With some ease the account of E. B. Ryckman, for $600, for services in advancing the city's legislation at the last session of the legislature was passed.

They want $40,000 for Munro Park, which is being discarded by the Toronto Railway Company. The board will visit the property.

A permit was issued for a church for colored Baptists at University-avenue and Edward-street, at a cost of $700. The Bell Telephone Company has taken out a permit for a telephone exchange at Lee-avenue to cost $500. Another at Bellevue-avenue and Oxford-street, to cost $300.

There will be a public meeting in the council chamber on Friday, July 13, to form a working committee for a memorial to the late Alex. Muir.

Some Disappointment. There is a kick from J. W. Woods about the way the Godson Company are laying the macadam roadway on Ossington-avenue. Complaints are made regarding the city inspectors, and the matter will be enquired into by the controllers.

The mayor will soon visit Ottawa, accompanied by a cheque for $130,000 to pay the government for the old fort property. The sum of $20,000 has already been paid. While in Ottawa his worship will see the minister of railways about Yonge-street bridge.

PREMIER DENIES PLOT.

Third Reading of Bill to Abolish N. B. Supreme Court. Ottawa, July 6.—The house this morning took up the bill relating to the New Brunswick supreme court, and gave it a third reading, the government refusing to consider the protest made by the opposition on the strength of a rumored plot.

The New Brunswick legislature has abolished the supreme court of that province, and a new court, to be known as a court of appeal and trial division court, is taking its place. The Federal act makes verbal alterations in Dominion statutes to provide for the changed court; that is the surface of the proposition. The inside, as portrayed by Conservatives, is a plot by which, when the six judges of the old court are appointed to the new one, the chief justices will be squeezed out.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier declared that, if there was a plot, the government were not party to it.

FOR FOURTEEN YEARS. Kenora, July 6.—Magistrate Moore to-day imposed an unusually heavy sentence upon Fred Bartley, an English immigrant of bad reputation, who was convicted of house-breaking.

He was sent to the penitentiary for fourteen years.

There are now ten smallpox patients in the Swiss Cottage Hospital, and Dr. Sheard says they are all doing nicely.

Youth's Vitality Sapped Away. Your child looks poorly, is tired and fretful. You would like this boy or girl to be more robust, more energetic and vivacious.

The "something" that is wrong is simply this: stomach and bowels need attention. Constipation and indigestion must be relieved, new life and vigor are required in the blood, slight assistance is needed for the kidneys and liver.
