

THE WORLD'S HOME MAGAZINE FOR WOMEN.

Edited by LAURA E. McCULLY, B.A.

PERSONAL.

In the recent announcement of graduates at the Toronto Conservatory of Music the name of Miss Vera I. Riggs (Albert College, Belleville), was inadvertently omitted in the piano department artists' course.

Mrs. W. J. Hammond, Winnipeg, and Miss Etta Jones of Hamilton, are spending a few weeks at Acton Island, Muskoka, Lake.

The marriage took place yesterday at 12.30 in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of Miss Evelyn Weir, B.A., of the class of '03, daughter of the late Albert A. Weir and Mrs. Weir, and Mr. Alfred Donaldson Stewart, son of the late J. K. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart of Ottawa.

The Rev. Alexander Williams, M.A., rector of St. John's, performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. S. de K. Sweetman, M.A., of St. Thomas' Church. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her cousin, Mr. F. W. Harcourt. Her gown was of embroidered Brussels net over white tulle and chiffon, and was adorned with seed pearls, and she wore a white picture hat with plumes.

A quiet wedding was celebrated on Monday evening at St. Anne's parsonage, Dufferin-street, when the Rev. Lawrence Skey united in marriage Miss Jeannette Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeves, and Mr. A. C. West of the Toronto Daily Star. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Luella Reeves of Aurora, wore a pretty traveling suit of blue broadcloth and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. J. Reed, St. Austell Villa, New Beach, has gone on an extended visit to her brother, Mr. S. J. Murgford of Saltcoats, Sask.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandham and family have come from Montreal to attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sandham.

Miss Jennie Holland, who for the last four years has been travelling in Europe, has joined her sister, Mrs. J. Ross Robertson, in London. They will spend August in the Scottish Highlands and return to Canada in September.

WHAT TO WEAR

The straw sailor is rapidly undergoing a transformation and when our distinguished English visitors come to open the exhibition in the fall, only one type will be worn by the fashionable woman. It is the type described by The New York American as "rough straw, with exaggerated brim and low crown, trimmed only with a ribbon band."

Lingerie, says the same paper, are to be absolutely out in a very short time. Nothing is to be avoided as a form of dress at once distinctive and "nasse," so beware of the lingerie, just whisper and hear what one clever girl couple left later for a two weeks' honeymoon to the Muskoka Lakes. Mrs. West will be at home to her friends at her residence, 51 Dufferin-street, after Sept. 1.

The Toronto World CHILDREN'S HUMANE LEAGUE

For next week's competition, we give the subject, "In the Garden." Preferably, we would like to hear of the doings of birds and insects, which have been observed. The children may, if they wish, however, draw on their imaginations for a sketch of an ideal garden, with birds and pets. The letters must not be longer than two hundred words and must be plainly signed with name and address of the writer. Only members of the League can compete. If you are not a member, fill out the blank beneath and send with your letter.

The prize is an enamel pin, with wreath, and the legend, "T. W. H. L."

I wish to become a member of The Toronto World Humane League.

INSANE, TRIES TO THROW LITTLE GIRL FROM TRAIN

Passenger on Fast Express Prevented by Train Crew From Killing Daughter and Self.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Frederick Ford of Philadelphia became insane in a train after leaving Albany today and made several efforts to kill his 2-year-old daughter by throwing her from a window of the train. He was restrained by other passengers, Ford also tried to leap from the train.

Several weeks ago Ford went to Montreal on business. Last night the father and daughter began their homeward journey, and shortly after leaving Albany today the passengers noticed that Ford acted queerly.

The train crew was called and a watch set upon Ford, who did not remain quiet long, but went to the car door and tried to jump from the train while it was running at high speed.

Ford went back to his seat at three places. Fought with Tarrytown and Yonkers, seized the little daughter and sought to throw her thru the window while the train was running at high speed.
