the people of Hamilton are calling upon their municipal leaders to refuse to extend the company's franchise and to arsume control of the road. The ownership of the radiway would mean everything to the city. When the estimates of the year were being struck it was hoped that a lower rate than 20 mills would be arrived at, but 20 mills itself is not sufficient, and, in consequence, the Fire Department is not properly equipped, and roads long out of repair must continue to be a disgrace to hamilton. The city won't stand more taxation, but it believes thoroughly that is the street railway, municipally owned, is just the revenue producing department that is needed. Give the Street Railway Company the terms it asks for, and not only with this fine asset be longer in falling into the city's hands, but it will be much more expensive to acquire.

This is no all-under city ownership, there would be cheaper fares; no 6 minute service, when a 5 minute one is called for in the contract; no taking off of a needed car here and there in order to lend color to the idza that the city is bleeding the company to death; no working of employes $2 hours a week, or sweating the wages of the men down from 15 to 13½ cents an hour.

He Worked on Sunday.

"I did not consider that I was doing anything wrong by making bread and butter for my family," exchaimed Charles Camplon at the Police Court this morning. Camplon, who is a mechanic, was spotted by P. C. Miller mixing cement in a King William-street factory last Sunday. Defendant admitted the work, but said he was not engaged at his regular vocation, as he is a hand at a pork factory. In giving judgment Magistrate Jelfs remarked, "You may not have been morally wrong, but you were violating a law that is over 100 years old. In England the Sunday League is agitating for the law's repeal, but we are not so far advanced in Canada." Campion got off on deferred.

Market Committee and Boxing Bouts.

Round 13 of the late McPartland-Laughlin bout in this city was rehearsed to-night at the Market Committee. Its re-appearunce was due to a petition of Y.M.C.A. directors—J. J. Greene, George Rutherford, Adam Brown, J. Waugh, F. W. Watkins and others—protesting against boxing bouts as demoralizing and asking that for the city's fair name such be prohibited hereafter. In the newspaper account of the slugging attached to the petition, a portion of round 13 was underlined. Ald Fernside said that the Y.M.G.A. gymnasium was provided with gloves. Ald. Lester thought the police were the best judges of a fight. Some one raised a laugh by suggesting that football be prohibited. The matter was finally

The committee decided to recommend to council that butchers, hucksters and dealers be required to pay 25 cents for doing business at the market. It could not see its way to reduce the $10 license fee of the butchers, but will recommend that the rental of butchers' stalls in the hall be cut down from $6.75 to $6 a month per single stall in the south end; and from $5 to $4.50 in the north.

The Cotating Guild, Reliance Benefit Order, and the friends of the members, met last evening in St. George's Hall, and a sociable time was spent. The action Judge Dartnell of the County of Ontario brought two weeks ago against S. S. Sharpe of Osgoode Hall, has been called off. Mr. Sharpe, in his letters to The Uxbridge Times, characterized the judge's decisions as the most unique and partial decisions that ever emanated from a judge." For that ever emanated from a judge." For these letters Mr. Sharpe was summoned to meet the Discipline Committee of the Law Society on Friday next. Last Monday Mr. Sharpe, acting on the advice of his solicitor, wrote to the Law Society expressing regret for his mode of attack, but in no way retracting his charges. This has been deemed sufficient by the society, and as far as it is concerned the matter is dead.

Sociable at Trinity Methodist Church, Bloor-street, superintended the annual high tea given last evening in the lecture room, and a delightful entertainment it was. Tea was tastefully served in the basement, between 6 and 8 o'clock, and that most generously. Justice done the edibles, all retired to the school room, where the pastor, Rev. Dr. Tovell, took the chair, and called upon Revs. Dr. Potts, Dr. John Burwash, Dr. Guffin, Dr. Badgely and other ministers to take seats on the platformi Dr. Tovell read a letter from Rev. G.W. Wallace, pastor of Bloor-street Presbyterlan Church, in which the writer expressed his disappointment in not being able to be present, but congratulated the congregation upon the able manner in which they had attacked the church debt. Dr. Potts was glad to learn that the church had taken steps towards erasing their monstrous liability, but Dr. Griffin, said the congregation had something to work for yet. Their liability was not altogether removed. During the evening the choir rendered a chorus quite melodiously, and the following artists also contributed to the excellent program: The Misses L. Norman, Rogers, Schubert, and Messrs, Forsyth, Levack and Sydiatt. Sociable at Trinity Methodist (hurch.

The statement was made in The Mail Delivered by Mr. Patterson to Opponents of Expert Duty on Nickel.

-Battle in Railway Committee-Con-Servative Caucus—Other Ottawa Notes.

Ottawa, March 22.—(Special.)—Mr. John Patterson of Hamilton has given the opponents of an export duty on nickel a broadside which must stagger them. He points out that in 1891 Stevenson Burke, president of the Canadian Copper Company, represented to the Dominion Government that the policy of his company was to accumulate matte at Sudbury, with a view to its treatment before removal. In 1897 the same man, before the United States Congress Committee, says that the imposition of an import duty by the United States Government would force them to refine in Canada, or have the refining done in Great Britain or Germany, and boasts of the policy of the company in operating these mines.

Mr. Patterson maintains that the imposition of an export duty will place Canadians on an equal footing with this company, who have so long been allowed to exercise, without hindrance, privileges never conferred on them by Parlianmet. If the United States would let the refined nickel in free, Canada could compete in their markets. At present the law is all one-sided; they take out matte free, and with comparatively little benefit to us, and refuse to let any refined product in except on payment of a duty of $1.20 to $1.60 a ton. Either they should put refined nickel on their free list, or we should impose an export duty on nickel matte.

The Franchise Bill.

guesec, he held it would be ultilar to impose manhood suffrage upon it.

A Bitter Experience.

Sir Charles Tupper said the Solicitor-General had altogether misapprehended the principles which governed Sur John Thompson. The experience of our dependence upon the provincial franchise was a bitter one. He would only instance the case of Nova Scotia, where, after the provincial election, a franchise bili was passed especially for the Dominion, one which the province never used for liself. If it were proposed to avail of the service of the manicipal officers in the preparation of a local list, why not go further and have them prepare a Dominion list? It was Sir Jihn Thompson's intention to have the provincial lists made the basis for the Federal revision. With the exception of Quebec and Nova Scotia manhood suffrage prevailed throughout Canada, and he declared that the Government could do better than adopt this principle for the Federal franchise without surrendering parliamentary control of the matter.

The Premier Was Gratified.

The December of Mr. Lawrence Corporal Harry Hobkirk of the Royal Canadian Dragoons is being envied by his commades because he has succeeded in become with the course of the Klondike expedition, not withstanding the decision that no cavalry-men were to be sent from Stanley Barracks. Corporal King of the R.R.C.I., who was chosen, was perhaps not going on the expedition, Without losing any time, he applied for a transfer from the Dragoous to the infantry regiment, with a faint hope of getting it. He was fortunate, however, and King's retirement made a vacancy for him as a corporal in the Klondike party. It is definitely understood that the detachment will leave the Capital on April 1, and will leave the Capital on April 1, and will leave the Capital on April 20.
