Robert Higgins Dead—The First
Break in a Large Family.

The community suffered another several loss yesterday in the death of one of the oldest residents. Mr. Robert Higgins, at his home at 804 Yonge-street. Mr. Higgins had been sick only for a short while and his death was not expected. During his loug career he had always enjoyed the best of health. He was born in London, Eng., in 1828, and consequently was in his 71st year. Coming to America 43 years ago, he settled in Brooklyn, New York, where for fifteen years he conducted a thriving business. At the end of that period he moved to Canada and came direct to Toronto, and had lived here ever since. He was given the position as foreman of the bookbinding department of the Hunter-Rose Printing and Publishing House, a position he occupied up to the last. He was also the senior partner in the grocery business at 804 Yonge-street, under the name of R. Higgins & Son, which was started by deceased over 16 years ago. Deceased leaves a widow and eleven children, all of whom are grown up. The children are: Mrs. W. R. Botsford, Robert, fr., Mrs. R. Potter, Mrs. T. Jamieson, Frederick, Arthur, Miss Clara, Miss Blanche of Toronto and Charles of Chicago, Edward, who is at present in Auburn, N.Y., and Walter, who is in Glen Falls, New York. The sad taking off of Mr. Higgins has been the first death in the family, and his demise is regretted by a host of friends. The funeral, which takes place to-morrow afternoon to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, will be under the auspices of the Masonic Order, deceased having been a member of Commonwealth Lodge in Brooklyn, N.Y., and Kang Solomon Lodge, A., F. and A. M., here. The employes of the Hunter-Rose firm will attend in a body, and Rev. Dr. Scott will conduct the burial services.

Another city official is confined to his home with the grip. This time is it City Engineer Rust.
