Gen. Buller have been wholly changed. Not the slightest word regarding the new plans have been allowed to escape.

To Relieve Kimberley.

It has been reported that the Belmont fight arose owing to the advance of a British column to relieve Kimberley, but this seems incorrect, all the most reliable accounts representing the engagement as growing out of a reconnaissance. The announcement of the arrival of Gen. Methuen at Orange River, however, doubtless means that arrangements are in a forward state for an advance from that noise.

O'BRIEN USED DYNAMITE! Put a 10-Pound Stick Under His Wife's Bedroom-All Escaped

Janesville, Wis., Nov. 17.--Fred O'Brien o-day placed a ten-pound stick of dynamite beneath his wife's bedroom. A terrific explosion followed, partly wrecking the house, which is a one-storey frame building. In the two small bedrooms were Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Brien and two small children and Mrs. Fred O'Brien and child. O'Brien's act is said to be because his wife refused to live with him. All the persons in the house escaped serious injury. O'Brien has confessed and implicated two other men.
