Manager Keating Says Company Desires Such a Line to Relieve Congestion.

NEW FENDERS BEING MANUFACTURED

Railway Committee of Privy Council Will Hear Applications on November 6.

Four more letters from Manager Keating were handed out at the Mayor's conference yesterday. One, in regard to closed cars, says that all the cars now on the regular routes are closed, the only open cars being those given to the public. The other three letters are in regard to the suggestion of "combination" cars, Mr. Keating says that the company does not see the possibility of it, but he is glad to adopt it.

FENDERS BEING MANUFACTURED

In regard to fenders, Mr. Keating points out that immediately on receipt of the notification from the government that the necessary order in Council had been passed, the fenders were being manufactured. The fenders chosen were not to be bought on the market, and the work of making them is being pushed ahead as rapidly as possible. Owing to the recent steel strike, the supply of steel is very limited, and the fenders in use before the stipulated time expires, and any delay will not be the fault of the company or its officials.

Complaint Being Investigated

The complaint of Mr. A. R. Clarke as to irregularities in the fare collection by the Mayor, is being investigated. Mr. Keating says that he has no objection to the Mayor's fare collection, but that he is investigating the complaint. He says that he has no objection to the Mayor's fare collection, but that he is investigating the complaint.

Application Will Be Heard

City Solicitor Campbell has been notified that the Railway Committee of Privy Council will meet at Ottawa on Wednesday, Nov. 6, when the application of the C.P.R. for an order compelling the city to pay half the cost of the proposed extension of the line from the crossing of Dundas-street and Bathurst-street, to the crossing of the line at the crossing of Dundas-street and Bathurst-street, will be heard.

Mr. Al. Lusk says the golf club of the escape of the Lynn from Riverside Park was exaggerated, and that only a couple of players were allowed to play. He says that the golf club of the escape of the Lynn from Riverside Park was exaggerated, and that only a couple of players were allowed to play.

GOLDWIN SMITH'S REMARKS

London, Oct. 21.—Goldwin Smith's remarks on church disestablishment, in a communication to the Manchester Guardian, which was quoted this week, in which he expressed his opinion that as much of the church fund as is paid to the State should be diverted for the purposes of public education, were much appreciated in a week devoted to an important non-conformist Congress.

A Freak of Nature

Ingersoll, Oct. 21.—George Henderson of the 8th regiment, McKillop, has a freak of nature, which is a young pig, with six feet, two hind and four in front. At the ankle joint, where most pigs have a kind of prong growing, this animal has on each leg an extra and fully formed foot. In addition to the four in the usual place. The pig is about six weeks old, and is a fine, strong young animal, and gets around as lively on all sides as most of them do on all fours. Mr. Henderson is quite proud of his six-footed pig, and a great many of his neighbors have been calling at his place to see this monstrous pig.

There is nothing like Asthma. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. Wells of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthma received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I was deprived of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overlooked yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. Bnai Israel, New York, Jan. 3, 1901.

Dr. Taft Bros. Medicine Co., Gentlemen,—Your Asthma cure is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is astonishing and wonderful.

After having it carefully analyzed, we can state that Asthma cure contains no opium, morphine, chloroform or other. Very truly yours, REV. DR. MORRIS WECHSLER.
